CONTEST IDEAS:

Our P.O. box was stuffed after we put out a call for Player's Poll Contest ideas in Volume 44. Let's take a look at some of the best ideas.

How about round trip tickets to a snowboarding championship for four? You get to meet all of the pros and then after that, you get to ride with and take lessons from the winner. You'd also get a free Burton, Nitro or Avalanche snowboard.

Joe Purcell
Annandale, MN

Sounds very cool. Chilly, in fact.

Take (the winner) up in an SR-71 or another high performance plane that seats two and engage them in a staged dogfight. The bogeys will be remote control planes that will be shot down with missiles or a machine gun. Of course, there will be a trained pilot flying the plane, but the winner gets to shoot the guns.

Bill Snyder
E. Glensville, NY

We don't like the idea, but our legal department really wants us to do it!

I think you should have a WWF Super WrestleMania Player's Poll Contest. The Grand Prize would be airfare, hotel accommodations and two tickets to WrestleMania IX at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas. Second Prize would be a WWF Super WrestleMania Game Pak and a one year subscription to WWF Magazine. Third Prize would be Nintendo Power Jerseys.

Chris Rice
N. Canton, OH

Actually, Chris, that's a quite popular idea. Jeremy Brooks from St. Charles, MO had almost the same idea.

I've got it! How about a Mario Kart contest? The winner gets to take five friends to a real race track and run a few laps in go-karts!

Mike Witry
(aka, King Witboy, Ruler of Kartland)
Dubuque, IA

I think there should be a Star Trek Player's Poll Contest. The Grand Prize winner would win a trip to the set of the new Deep Space Nine series at Paramount Studios. There, they could learn how Deep Space Nine works by having a tour of the place. The Second Prize winners would receive a Star Trek: The Next Generation Game Pak along with some other Star Trek item.

Trevor Meyer
Breckenridge, MN

Products with Nintendo characters on them are very popular. We may even see a Mario soft drink in the near future. And there are items that you'd like to see with our characters on them?

ENVELOPE ART

THE LOST VIKINGS™

Hardy, bold, and tough as stone, they mounted the waves in their sleek ships and conquered the greatest civilization of their time—the Vikings! Interplay's The Lost Vikings may do for the action/puzzle game category what the original Vikings did for Rome, which is to say, turn it upside down! One or two players control the three Vikings, each with his own special skills. They must work as a team to pass through seven levels with multiple stages. The pass-word feature lets you save your progress.

VIKINGS IN SPACE

It was the day of the great hunt. Three brothers, Eric the Swift, Baelog the Fierce and Olaf the Stout were late, as usual, but they charged into the frozen forest and returned to the village with a feast. Being simple Viking folk, they had no way of knowing that a huge Croustorian starship hovered above them in the blackness of space. That night, as the brothers snored, the ship beamed them up. The greatest alien collector in the universe, Tomator, wanted these tough, hardy and bold specimens for his zoo. But the bros. have other plans. Now they'll do everything they can, including warping through time and space, to reach their homes.

From cozy beds in the corridors of an alien spaceship—not a nice way to wake up! But nothing is too great a challenge for a Viking hero.

After each level, the brothers wake in a new world. Of course, all they really want is to reach a place where the herring never runs.

NORDIC TASKS

THE LOST VIKINGS

Each Viking has a special skill that only he can use. Within each level of the game you will find obstacles that must be overcome. Together, the three Vikings have all the skills necessary to get past the barriers. Alone, no Viking stands a herring's chance in a pickle vat. The trick to The Lost Vikings is to see how the Vikings' skills can be used in combination to reach new areas. Sometimes their skills aren't enough without the help of Items found along the way. In many cases, the Vikings must use their talents to reach a switch that will deactivate some threat. In every area you can be sure that all three Vikings will be called on to contribute. Although you can sometimes escape from a stage with fewer than three Vikings, you will need all three at some point within the stage to reach the exit.

OLAF THE STOUT

Olaf is about as difficult to budge as a mountain, but he can also be light on his feet when using his shield as a wing glider.

BALEOG THE FIERCE

Baleog is the fiercest fighter in the land. His main attack is with a sword. His secondary attack is with bow and arrow.

ERIK THE SWIFT

Erik can run like a mouse and leap like a cat. He can also put his head to use by knocking down walls with his helmet.

VIKING CONQUESTS

SHIELD JUMPING

Erik can reach new heights by jumping from Olaf's shield. Push the B Button to raise Olaf's shield, then switch to Erik. Now you can hop over the shield and beyond.

SWITCH HITTING

In many areas you will find switches and buttons that activate various defensive systems. Baleog's arrows can fire through the barrier and hit the switch to deactivate the threat.

GIVE AND TAKE

The Vikings can share their booty. If Erik drops a shield and Baleog is down a few hit points, share the shield.

THE PROTECTION RACKET

Olaf's shield serves as protection for his brothers against weapons and monsters alike. When you enter a battle zone, send Olaf out in front to ward off all the blows.

SHIELD LANDING

In addition to needing a step up from time to time, you might need a safe step down. Olaf's shield can provide the needed landing area.

SCOUTING REPORTS

Since Olaf can protect himself from unfriendly enemies and has eyes in front to explore new areas. Use up the obstacles that bring forth the appropriate Viking.

OLAF CAN FLY!

Olaf's thick shield has been aerodynamically designed to allow for gliding. When Olaf holds the shield overhead and jumps from a high point, he'll glide slowly across the screen to unexplored areas.

BLAZING ARROWS

Five Arrows destroy enemies with a single shot, whereas Baleog's normal arrows take two arrows or more to stop a foe. Five Arrows are found in some stages only.

STAGES 1-4

EASY MEDIUM HARD

LOST IN SPACE

The Vikings suspect that something has gone terribly wrong when they are beamed aboard Tomator's spaceship. To a Viking, all that gleaming metal and all those slimy aliens must look pretty impressive, and pretty mean! But you have nothing to worry about. The game designers started out easy and provided tons of hints to help you practice using the Vikings' different skills. You should be able to blow through these stages with just a little bit of effort.

STAGE 3:
STARTYELLOW
KEYSMART
BOMBS

Buttons, switches and levers will open blocked passages for the Vikings. Some you can push directly while others must be hit at a distance by one of Olaf's arrows.

RED

EXIT

This is one of the larger areas of the Crouonian spaceship, but it should be child's play for three tough Norsemen. 1-2—To start off, Erik will have to use his head to punch through the wall at the bottom of the elevator. 3—Fire Baleog's arrow through the electrical barrier to hit the button and switch it off. 4—All three Vikings enter the Teleporter to warp to the next area. 5-6—Olaf floats down using his shield to grab the Red Key and talk to the floppy red alien, then teleports back up. 7—Baleog shoots the button, cutting off the electrical juice. 8—Erik bashes the wall. Ouch! 9-10—Erik stands on top of Olaf's shield to jump up and reach the Yellow Key, which opens the door to the right. 11—Baleog shoots an alien from behind Olaf's shield. 12—Baleog dispatches two more aliens, then the Vikings reach the Exit.

PREHISTORIC PATHS

Long before there were Vikings or alien spaceships, the Earth was a cruel and primitive place where dinosaurs roamed, cavemen rolled about like armadillos and giant trees provided great places for building rope bridges. The Warp from the Croutonian spaceship takes the three brothers to this ancient time of caves and primitive puzzles.

STAGE 9: START

EXIT

For our lost wayfarers, the going ain't too tough in Stage 9, as the sword gauge above indicates. 1—Baleog shoots a snail and Erik uses his head to bash a wall. 2—Baleog shoots a snail and Erik uses his head to bash a wall. 3—Olaf hops down and blocks the rolling caveman and fireballs. Then Baleog joins him to defeat the caveman. 4-5—Grab the Red Key. 6-5—Grab the Red Key. 6—Baleog defeats several cavemen and Erik bashes a wall. 7—Baleog bags a snail and dinosaur. 8-9—Baleog shoots another snail, then the brothers ride the bubble to the first passage on the left. 10—Erik bashes a wall, then Olaf moves in to take the Yellow Key. 11—Erik takes the Yellow Key, jumps over the spikes and opens the door to the Blue Key. 12—Ride the bubbles up and hop off on the right side, then climb down the ladder to the Blue Lock. 13—Erik bashes a wall, then sprints in to grab the Super Bomb. 14—Take care of the final caveman. From here, it's just a short climb to the Exit.

STAGES 12-17

B A I L Y H A R D

NORSEMEN ON THE NILE

The heat is really on for the Vikings now that they have landed in Egypt. Avalanches of desert sand and scorpions are the least of their worries. They must pass through a pyramid guarded by the Pharaoh's spear-wielding troops and hidden traps. The guards can leap over Vikings, so it is important to keep Baleog ready at all times!

STAGE 12: START

BOMB

YELLOW

EXIT

The last place a Viking wants to be is baking in a desert. These guys aren't dressed for it and they can see that they're going to have about as much fun as a herring in Arizona. 1—From the top of the palm tree, Erik jumps across the shifting sand, Olaf glides across, and Baleog must shoot two coconuts from the tree opposite so he has something on which to land. 2—Olaf should stand close to the scorpion while Baleog fires arrows from out of range of the creature's shots. 3—Erik climbs the tall palm and retrieves the Bomb. 4—Cross the second sand area the same way you crossed the first. 5—Erik snags the Red Key above the palm tree. 6—Baleog shoots the scorpion. 7—Use the Red Key to open the pyramid. Be prepared for the guard just inside! 8—Send Olaf and Baleog up the ladder to defeat the Egyptians. 9—Olaf pushes the stone into the hole in the floor, then blocks the fireballs for Erik to leap in and grab the Yellow Key. Now get out of there!

THE SWEAT SHOP

Pounding cylinders and buzz saws are all new to a bunch of guys from the Sixth Century, but they take everything in their stride. If there is a way through this factory, they're just the Vikings to find it. The stages are starting to get harder now. Don't sweat it. You can keep trying to pass a stage for as many turns as you like.

There's a whole new set of ways to be squashed, mashed, sliced and diced in this mechanical nightmare. The Vikings couldn't care less. What's internal combustion to a guy who's warped out of an alien spaceship? 10's—Olaf can hold up the small pistons with his shield while the others run underneath. 2—Erik jumps into the airshafts for the Smart Bomb and regular Bomb. 3—Baleog shoots the button to stop the piston. 4—Erik jumps from Olaf's shield. 5—Erik hops over the buzz saw, pushes the button, and hops back to safety. 6—Erik uses the airshaft to reach the Fire Arrow. 7—Send the Vikings through the airshaft to collect items. 8—Baleog destroys the buzz saws with his arrows. 9—Erik jumps up to collect the Smart Bomb. 10—Collect the Shield Power-Up and bomb the grey blocks in the floor. Now, while Olaf blocks the robot, Erik jumps over him and grabs the Red Key. 11—Baleog shoots the button to stop the piston. 12—Time your passage along the conveyor belts to avoid the pistons. Use the Red Key and head to the Exit.

STAGES 26-33

EASY  HARD

VIKINGS IN WONDERLAND

Suddenly, nothing is quite as easy as it used to be. Maybe the Vikings are just getting tired, or maybe this weird new land they've landed in doesn't play by the same rules. For instance, the Vikings must blow themselves up with gas to balloon up to new areas and items. That's just for starters. The Vikings have their hands full now.

The Wacky World the Vikings have landed in plays by a different set of rules, seemingly, but the guys are quick to catch on—at least they'd better be. 1—Olaf pump's up with gas and floats to the ledge with the snoot monster on it. 2—Baleog follows Olaf and skewers the monster on the ledge. 3—Erik goes ballooning as soon as the platform appears at the top of the screen. He'll float into the narrow gap, grab the Red Key and deflate, falling to the platform. From there it's an easy jump back to the ledge. 4—Erik floats up, uses the Red Key to get the Blue Key. 5—jump down to the left, then balloon over to the Blue Lock and open it. 6—Erik balloons up to the ledge using the narrow passage on the left. 7—Erik fills up on the ledge and flies to the switch to start the platform moving, then falls down to the ledge on the left before jumping to the ledge with the pump. 8—Now Erik floats up and grabs the Yellow Key above the platform. 9—Erik should float to the right and grab the Bomb also. Watch out for spikes! 10—Use the Yellow Key to open the gate. 11—Balloon through this passage until you near the spiked ceiling, then manually deflate to reach the right side. 12—Baleog can shoot the red pipes to cut off the gas to the jets. As he crosses the conveyor belt, watch out for a snoot monster. Defeat it and grab the Red Key. 13—Use the Red Key to activate the elevator. 14—Erik rides the elevator and blows up the wall on the left with a Bomb. 15—Erik blows up the blocks on the floor to reach the Blue Key. 16—Ride the elevator up to the Blue Lock to open the passage to the Exit.

RETURN TO SPACE

The Vikings warp back to the Croutonian spaceship, determined to take care of Tomator once and for all. But things have changed aboard this interstellar zoo collector's ship.

The place is highly charged with electron beams and other security devices. If the bros. are to reach Tomator, they'll have to pass through three of the toughest stages yet.

Now that they're back on the spaceship, the Vikings can smell the sweet fat feast to a Viking's smell of home. 1—Olaf floats down to the Bomb. 2—The Transporter drops Olaf in a t-t-t shift. Drop your Bomb and land on the left ledge. When the computer blows up, drop down to get the Blue Key and transport back to the beginning to make the bridge with the Blue Key. 3—Now Erik bounds to the right atop the red spring pads, grabs the Bomb and drops down a shaft. 4—He lands on the left ledge. 5—Baleog and Olaf go down the elevator, shoot a critter on the left to get a Smart Bomb. 6—Baleog fires an arrow to the right. It hits the button deactivating the electron beam so Erik can grab the Yellow Key. 7—Erik moves left, uses the Yellow Key, and blows up a stack of blocks. 8-9—Erik uses Transporters to grab another Bomb. 10-11—Erik hops up the elevators and blows the left wall at the top. 12—Baleog dodges electron beams. 13—One of Baleog's arrows hits the button by the Transporter. 14—Olaf takes the passage opened by Erik's Bomb in Step 7. 15—Floating down the shaft, Olaf picks up the Red Key. 16-17—Erik floats up to the Blue Key in Zero-G. 18—Both Red and Blue Keys are needed to unlock the door to the Exit.

THE SPORTS

TWO MUCH FUN?

The other day, a sports game fanatic friend called up. He'd been playing his Super NES for 20 hours a day with only a few breaks to shower, change team hats, and call in sick. "There are too many games," he grumbled, "too many seasons to play, too many championships to win! You got me into this, Thor! I challenge you! You! USA! USA!" You don't take a challenge like that standing up, so I went over to his house, crashed on the couch, grabbed Controller II and proceeded to run, shoot, and kick my old friend into a panting heap of humility. When it was over, he thanked me. "What are friends for," I shrugged. He looked up from his sprawled position on the floor. "Rematch, Saturday," he said, then fainted. So what's my point? Two-player sports games can be therapeutic and the Super NES has the best multi-player games in town. Thrash a friend and see if I'm right.

SUPER NBA BASKETBALL TAKES PRO TITLE

By Tecmo

Torrance, CA—The first Super NES sports title from the sports experts at Tecmo has arrived—Tecmo Super NBA Basketball. It was worth the wait. This is a huge game with more options than any other basketball game, one or two-player simultaneous play, exhibition games, complete regu-

The side view of the court is the view you would get from the stands, just like Bulls Vs. Blazers and Super Slam Dunk. But the characters in Super NBA are large and the designations showing which player has the ball or which player will receive a pass are clearly visible, unlike the other two games mentioned. Like NCAA Basketball, Super NBA has a selection of plays to choose from. Running the plays is easy and increases the chance of scoring. Of course, you can always work the ball around, looking for the open man. Choosing a team member to whom you can pass the ball is simply a matter of "pointing" at him using the Directional Control Pad. On defense, you can harass a player, jump to block and switch off.

ALL-STARs

More than any other professional sports league, the NBA is filled with super stars, from Michael Jordan to Charles Barkley. Virtually every team has its share of stars, but not all of the stars will appear where you expect them in Super NBA. So what's the scoop? The rosters in Super NBA were determined at the All-Star break of the 1992 season, so personnel changes that took place later, like Barkley moving to Phoenix or Magic Johnson retiring, are not reflected. The All-Star game itself is one of the best two-player options around due to the strengths of the players. During regular season games, use the Player Data, which indicates strengths in six categories, to put together your winning lineup.

PLAYING IN THE NBA

By Tecmo

Super NBA gives you the chance to star in the NBA, but it isn't easy learning and mastering all the intricacies. Here are the basics. On offense, the best strategy is to use the preset plays. Select four plays from the Playbook to call on the court, then call them. Look for the man closest to the hoop, then pass him the ball and take the shot. Shooting from a preset play increases your chances of sinking the basket. When shooting without setting up a play, use your best percentage guys—players with the best Shooting Range—and shoot from the perimeter. Since the ball isn't released until your finger is off the B Button, you can use hang time to avoid blocks. Hook shots close to the basket and slam dunks are the highest percentage shots, but it can be difficult getting the ball inside unless you use a play. On the defensive side, you can switch to the closest player to the ball, but the action is so fast that you may get lost. The easiest strategy is to stay under the basket and move out to challenge any offensive player. This way you prevent the easy basket. There are no preset defensive sets like those in NCAA Basketball, and the players move too quickly to run an effective backcourt press, but the stealing and blocking controls are easy to use.

"On offense, the best strategy is to use the preset plays."

MAGIC'S SUPER SLAM DUNK

By Virgin Games

Irvine, CA—Magic Johnson, former great of the Lakers, introduces each match-up in this Super NES basketball simulation. Since this title from Virgin Games doesn't have an NBA license, that's all you'll see of Magic. The view is from the half court line, but from a much higher perspective than NCAA Basketball. The use of Mode 7 effects is limited to pivoting at half court to face either basket. Although you have a great view of all the action in this perspective, the "active" player (who you control) is designated only by a difficult-to-see colored disk on the floor. There are two modes of play: Exhibition (for one or two players) and Play-off. There is a password in the Play-off Mode, but play-off teams are chosen randomly, so you can't select your favorite team. Unlike Super NBA, there is no season play. The only truly outstanding aspect of the game, is the play-by-play digitized voice. Not only is the voice clear, but the announcer updates the action from moment to moment, making a running commentary that actually makes sense!

Unfortunately, the action that the announcer describes hardly seems to be the action taking place on the court. There are no preset plays and no way of knowing which player can shoot well from outside. Making a basket seems to be more a matter of luck than skill, even from close to the basket. Defense is just as awkward, mainly because your man responds slowly to Controller commands. With quality games like NCAA Basketball and Super NBA on the market, Super Slam Dunk pales in comparison.

"The only truly outstanding aspect of the game is the play-by-play digitized voice."

Super Slam Dunk sounds great, but lacks solid play

AMERICAN GLADIATORS

By Gametek

North Miami Beach, FL—This Super NES Pak from Gametek recreates the competitive events of the TV show so that you can challenge the real American Gladiators in the Tournament or up to 16 of your friends in alternating play. The seven events include Assault, Human Cannonball, Atlasphere, Joust, Powerball, The Wall, and the Eliminator. Good graphics and sound are the big appeal of this game, because they convey a real sense of the show, like Acclaim's WWF Super Wrestlemania. It's too bad that the actual play is either awkward or lacks challenge. Some of the events have such puzzling Controller functions that you'll have to look at the manual to get it right. For instance, in the Eliminator, you simply push the L and R Buttons continuously as fast as possible. What this has to do with an obstacle course seems to escape everyone but the game designer. Atlasphere and Powerball are the only two events that present real game play and challenge. AG fans might like the game for these events alone plus the great digitized box screens. Let's just hope that Knights & Warriors isn't next on the list.

In the Joust you can jump, thrust, block and move the hottest production models ever to grace the pavement. You'll duel against either of the other two cars or the clock on courses that approximate real roads. The easiest course is in the desert. More difficult courses represent city driving, the East Coast, and finally, a winding West Coast highway. Conditions also vary within a course, so that you may begin during a rain storm and then move into the sun. Since the roads are open highway rather than race tracks, you'll have to avoid smashing into slow motorists. The result is that there is a lot of slaloming in and out of traffic for a very realistic feel. Even more realistic is the fact that you'll probably get stopped for speeding. Your goal is to reach the Gas Stations before your opponent does or before time expires. The view from behind the wheel shows the dash and gear shift lever. It's your choice to shift manually or use automatic. The dash includes speedometer and tach. The road and backgrounds scroll smoothly, giving a real sense of speed, but the steering feels too soft for such a high performance machine. If the thrill of speed is what you're after, you'd do better with F-Zero, Top Gear or F1-ROC, but if you want reality in your driving, from the view out the window to the sound of revving engines, take a test drive with The Duel: Test Drive II.

Backseat is the strength of Test Drive II

GRAND PRIX

By Hudson Soft

South San Francisco, CA—Don't get the wrong idea about Battle Grand Prix from Hudson Soft. The "Battle" refers to a battle of skills between drivers, not missiles launched at opposing cars, although such a feature might have added a certain flair. What Battle Grand Prix does have is traditional Formula-1 racing on courses around the world. This split screen, two-player simultaneous game has an overhead view with no 3-D perspective, unlike behind-the-car or behind-the-wheel games. The result is that you can't see what's coming up ahead, and that can cause a lot of spinouts and crashes.

The options in Battle GP are great. You can set up your controls however you want them and you can outfit your car with seven types of equipment suitable for a given course, and it's free! As for the sense of speed and actually being on a race track, Battle GP feels more like a slot car simulation. In fact there is a Slot Car option in this game in which you control only your car's speed. In all modes, the vertically split screen is more distracting than the horizontally split screen of Top Gear. If you want to make the ultimate racing machine, Battle GP has some strong points. If the actual race is what turns you on, take a look at the competition named above.

FEEL THE IMPACT

By Acclaim

Oyster Bay, NY—Super High Impact, the toughest talking football arcade game ever, is on its way from Acclaim. This one- or two-player football game has been adapted from the Williams/Bally/Midway coin-op, which means that the emphasis is on action rather than options or strategy. Good animation, some great digitized pictures and voices all serve to get players pumped. The limited number of plays from which you can choose doesn't seem to limit the game possibilities. The version reviewed at Nintendo Power was 80% to 90% complete and some of the Artificial Intelligence still needed work. Still, this was a fun two-player game, especially for players who just want to play football without having to learn the intricacies of a complex video game like Super Play Action Football or the difficult play selection process of John Madden Football '93. Football Fury, also reviewed in this issue, is the closest game to Super High Impact, but even that simple game seems complex in comparison. The plays are limited, but the play is exciting. Expect good control on offense, especially for passing plays, and fair control on defense. Like most football games, except John Madden '93, you can't shift your defender before the snap. Instead, you must shift your control to another player. This is lame, but control of the defender is solid once the play begins. You may not be able to hide your play selection on this meat & potatoes game, but that just adds to the challenge. Look for Super High Impact early this summer.

"... this was a fun two-player game ..."

THE POUND AND THE FURY

By American Sammy

Elk Grove, IL—A better name for this game might have been Football Japanese Style. From the oriental lettering of the title to the awkwardly written manual, it is clear that this game wasn't Made In The USA. The problems with this game range from the mildly irritating to the ridiculous. Take for instance the difficult passing sequence, which requires selecting a receiver, then passing using a power gauge. Since you can't see more than 15 yards down the field, you won't be able to judge how much power to use. Or take the speed of the computer's defensive players. Although, halfway across the field, they suddenly turn on the afterburners and tackle your runner. Go figure. On the positive side is the fact that you can play a conference schedule and save the game using passwords. Of course, the conferences are fictitious and "the teams all play the same, but that just evens things out in the two-player mode," which is the best way to play this game

"...the teams all play the same, but that just evens things out in the two-player mode..."

NFL FOOTBALL HITS TOWN

By Konami

Buffalo Grove, IL.--If you wanted to give this Pak a new name, it might be Hurt Football--named after the dizzying use of Mode 7 effects on passing and kicking plays. Starting from the side, the view rotates around so that you are facing your own goal. Apparently the idea, at least on passing plays, is that after the pass you are switched to the view of the receiver looking back at his quarterback. Other amazing blunders include a scoreboard that is about as difficult to read as chicken bones and a tiny floating bull's-eye symbol that indicates which player is under your control. Then there's the most awkward Menu Screen ever for a Super NES sports game, a play-off mode that limits which teams can appear in the post-season, and long animation sequences that can't be cut short. Well, to every cloud there must be a silver lining, and with NFL Football the silver linings are excellent play-by-play voice, a good selection of offensive plays and defensive sets, and real NFL teams with their true strengths and weaknesses (although real NFL players are not included and you can't make substitutions.) Maybe the strangest part of this Jekyll and Hyde game is that while the Mode 7 effect completely screws up your sense of control, chances are you'll complete a lot of passes in spite of the spinning. In other words, the computer does most of the work, which is good news and ultimately makes the game playable. If NFL action with a twist (a big twist) is what you want, spend some time with Konami's NFL Football.

"The view rotates around so that you are facing your own goal."

A passcut saves your play off progress.

SHADOWRUN

SEATTLE, CIRCA 2050

Based on a role-playing board game originally developed by the FASA Corporation, Shadowrun takes you to the streets of Seattle in the year 2050. This Super NES version, published by Data East, is the first created for a computer game system, and although the play control and graphics lack the smoothness and definition many of us have come to expect from Super NES titles, the storyline has enough depth to make Shadowrun an intriguing play.

HIT THE STREETS RUNNING

By 2050, cyberotechnology has replaced outdated telecommunications systems. The countries we know today no longer exist—new nation states have taken their places. Giant mega-corporations wield the power in huge megaplexes that have grown unchecked to cover the land. Where do Shadowrunners fit into this society? They lurk in the darkness, emerging only when a Megacorp needs someone to do its dirty work.

The story of streetwise Shadowrunner Jake Armitage begins in an unlikely location, on a slab in the city morgue.

Jake may have lost his brain, but that doesn't mean out. If he can find parts, he can have his damage repaired.

SHADOWRUNNING STRATEGY

SHADOWRUN

GET SOME SHUT-EYE

Search for a place to sleep and save your game often. You never know what dangers lurk around the next corner, and you don't want to lose your hard-won progress.

When you find a comfortable bed, USE it to get some well-deserved rest.

When you USE the bed, you can either save your game or use some Karma.

TALK TO STRANGERS

When you talk to people you meet, they sometimes give you Key Words on particular subjects. You must have a Key Word before you can ask for information about it.

It never hurts to ask. See if the people you meet have any new information.

The red text shows the Key Word "Meet." Now you can ask about finding

GIVE JAKE A HAND

Shadowrun's graphics make it difficult to see small details, so it's easy to overlook important items. Press the B button to turn things up, then search the place again.

Take a long look. Before you leave the scene, press the B button to search the slab that Jake was kind enough to

A simple search reveals the name of the Slab's lord and a small piece of paper that reads "Welcome Mr. S."

After you pick up the Torn Paper, search the rest of the museum for small items that you might not be able to see.

Check the entire database carefully. Your search should turn up a shiny object that you can use to open doors.

the nooks and crannies in the area around you. If you fail to search the slab, you'll miss the Torn Paper that gives you a message to read. It's important you know this.

SHADOW SPELLS

Jake has the potential of learning several spells as he completes various runs. The Dog Spirit that materializes in a warehouse at the Docks teaches him the spells

HEAL

The Dog Spirit gives Jake the first spell. Heal, when he takes the dog's name, is required earlier in the Docks.

POWERBALL

Jake gets the powerful Powerball spell in return for the Mezzan Paper, which is the first of the Seven, both from Area 1.

ARMOR

Jake must find the Internal Scale and the Serpent's Scale in order to get the armor that is the most powerful.

SUMMON SPIRIT

When Jake kills the attacking dog and takes its dog tags in the Dog Spirit, he gets the Summon Spirit spell.

FREEZE

The Dog Spirit tells Jake that he must return with the residue of two ice elements to get the Freeze spell.

INVISIBILITY

To gain the invisibility spell, Jake must collect fresh water from the fountain and find water from the Docks.

THE STREETS

1 THE GRAVEYARD

When you revive the Shaman lying in one of the Crypts, he'll give you the Magic Fetish.

2 GLUTMAN'S OFFICE

Search Glutman's office to find a Cyberdeck. When you repair the Data-jack, you can interface with computers.

3 THE GRIM REAPER

When the bartender serves up your favorite, iced tea, give it to the Club Patron.

4 THE CAGE

When you meet Glutman at the Cage, he'll take you to the Carvards.

6 THE MORGUE

Put on your Shades and Badge, then return to the Morgue to get the Tickets and Credstick.

7 TOWN SQUARE

Open the broken gate to free the dog and pick up the Collar it drops in the street. Return to the Fountain later to fill a bottle with fresh water.

5 THE ALLEY

The Alley is dark and dangerous, but you'll find a weapon there.

First, pick up the Bacteria Rod by the body.

Steal the dog the eyes from the darkness.

Listen to the Dog Spid - maybe you'll get a message.

Pick up and use the primitive Leather Jacket.

8 YOUR APARTMENT

Go to your apartment and listen to the message waiting on the Video Phone. Pick up the Shades, the note from Sasse and money from the file cabinet. Use the bed to save the game.

Apartment #5 is your home base. Go there to save the game.

Examine the file cabinet closely to find some extra dough.

Duke has left a note to warn message on the Video Phone.

9 THE OFFICE

Examine the body to find the key to your apartment, then pick up a memo from the desk.

After you've earned a big bundle of Nuyen in the Carylard Arena, go to the Weapon Shop and upgrade your weapon and armor. Examine the cases in the shop to see what's available.

FIREPOWER FOR SALE

You'll find a Colt, a Ruger, a Shotgun, a Feltre, an Arcti Viper, some Grenades, and a Wire Mesh Jacket for sale. You can return to the shop later to sell what you have and buy different weapons.

2 THE TALISMAN SHOP

Talk to the person in the Talisman Shop to get some Key Words and her telephone number. You'll be able to call her later from any Video Phone.

WHAT TO BUY

Many weapons and items are sold in the Talisman Shop. Examine the showcases in the shop to find the prices of Blue and Purple Pistol Bodies, a Black Knife, and a Wooden Stake. You won't be able to afford everything at once, so wait a while to purchase items as you find a need for them.

THE CARYARD

3 THE STREET DOC

When you ask the Doc about the Datagack, he offers to examine you. He accidentally sets off a Cortex Bomb which you need to defuse.

The Doc will examine you for 500 Nuyen. When he does, he accidentally activates a Cortex Bomb.

WINNING AT RANDOM COMBAT

To build up Karma points and earn cash, you have to take part in Random Combat. Of course, if you lose, the game's over, so use your head when you fight. Try to take on one enemy at a time, staying out of the line of the others' fire until you're ready to take them on. Stay behind large objects to avoid direct hits.

4 THE SPUTNIK BAR

You won't learn much talking to the patrons of the Sputnik Bar, but it's a good place to hire runners. They may not be very hospitable but they are inexpensive.

5 RIDE THE MONORAIL

From the Oldtown Station, you can go to either 10th Street or Downtown.

Go left to Downtown, right to reach 10th Street.

6 THE CARYARD AND ARENA

The Caryard area is small, but it's a good place to raise your Karma and earn money. You can either pay the King to let you leave or defeat him in the Arena and earn 4000 Nuyen. After you leave, return with more experience to fight the toughest opponents.

DOWNTOWN, THE DOC

1 THE WASTELANDS

This club is another good place to hire Runners. The Doc is an especially good fighter.

2 RUST STILETTOS

Use the Iron Key to enter the Stilettos' hangout. It's a tough run, so save the game as you finish each room.

3 JAGGED NAILS

Beat the Rust Stilettos to prove that you're tough enough to enter the Jagged Nails club. Talk to Kitsune, the singer.

4 THE DOCKS

You'll meet the Dog Spirit, fight the Octopus, find the Mermaid Scales, and catch a boat to Bremerdon down at the Docks.

5 MONORAIL STATION & DALEY PLAZA

Fight the two Rust Stilettos waiting at the Station to get the Iron Key that opens their hideout.

6 STREET DOC

Go at once to the Street Doc to have the Cortex Bomb defused. Return later to buy Cyberware, Dermal Armor and Boosted Reflexes.

7 DARK BLADE

Fight the vampires here to get the Volcano Key Word and learn the Jesler Spirit's true name.

8 THE DRAKE BUILDING

Jack into the computer and alter the program to use the elevator. Save your game as you finish each floor.

On top of the Building is a private Heli pad.

Doc weaves persuades the pilot to fly your way.

Tell him that you want to go to the Volcano.

THE BIGGER BATTLES TO COME

The helicopter can take you to Drake Volcano, but from there, you're on your own. If you survive walking down the four fiery floors to Drake's hiding place, you're in for a surprise—and a fierce fight. Use all of the weapons and spells in your power. If you're successful in battle, you'll earn the password to the Aneld Building, where the game's final war will be waged.

BATMAN™ RETURNS

THE DARK KNIGHT RIDES AGAIN

Striking fear into the very souls of Gotham City's underworld, Batman has returned... once again! The Dark Knight has yet to refuse a call for help, Konami released an NES title bearing the same name as this excellent Super NES action game, but there's no need to draw any comparisons between the two. The Super NES version is so much better. The graphics and sound are both tremendous. The action in some of the stages is much like Final Fight. Batman strolls down a three-dimensional street, advancing area by area, until he finds the stage end boss. Other stages are two-dimensional with Batman moving along as the screen scrolls left to right. As an added bonus, there is a stage where you get to drive the Batmobile as the screen scrolls toward you. Tap Gear style. Action game fans will appreciate the precise play control.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

Batman's business is crime-fighting, and business is good! When Bruce Wayne dons one of his Bat costumes, he's ready for some serious action. Fur and feathers will fly as Batman gets into some heavy scrapes with Catwoman and The Penguin. Batman has several methods of attack. He can punch, kick and pull off some specialty moves like the Cape Sweep, Flying Attack and Test Tube Toss. The Double Whammy is another special treat Batman uses to put the hurt on two baddies by grabbing both of them and slamming their heads together. It's the best!

RED TRIANGLE CIRCUS GANG

BATMAN RETURNS

A: THIN CLOWN 1

Early wimp, but, if given too much time to attack, he can still win! Yes, he wears a fully inflated outfit, but he is no clown boy! Don't turn your back on him for too long.

B: THIN CLOWN 2

Faster than a Thin Clown 1, these boys attack quickly with a display of acrobatic caperhearts. Show-offs, it's hard to say whether they're any smarter than a Thin Clown 1.

C: THIN CLOWN 3

If given enough time, this goofy son pagger will beat his unorthodox weapons in Batman's general direction. He's not very cocksure, just he wants that job won't only for show.

D: THIN CLOWN 4

The smartest Thin Clown, this carnival creep uses his bombs against Batman. Father takes care of him when he first shows his happy face or wait until his bombs have gone off.

E: FAT CLOWN 1

How about a cat, girl? No? Well then, eat this for zandwich! These blemishes really know how to use their weight around. Back off for a moment if they look like they're ready to jump.

F: FAT CLOWN 2

Daily looking, anyone? Fat Clown 2 can move faster than Fat Clown 1. He will jump at Batman and will try to squash the Caped Crusader with his butt. Pound him quickly.

G: BIKER

These clowns have taken to two wheels. Give 'em their huge dual batons; even you, they're easy to beat. Stand just to the side of the motorcycle's path and let 'em leave it!

H: BAZOOKA CLOWN

It's very important not to let these headless clowns get set to this aim. If at opposite sides of the screen, do not approach them head-on. Move down or up and avoid to confront them.

I: FIRE CLOWN

These red devils will show that fire sticks out and blow flames at Batman. Kneel down, they look like the Bazooka Clowns—approach them only from above or below and don't get burned.

J: TALL CLOWN

The Tall Clown doesn't walk around, but since he's on stilts and is throwing burning sticks, he's very dangerous! Don't cross it close. Just jump up and kick a few Batrings at him.

K: SWORD SWALLOWER

Not only can this bloater swallow his sword, he can swing it very well, too! Try using the Flying Jump Kick when bawling with this blade runner. Don't get caught standing around!

L: KNIFE THROWER

Like the Bazooka Clown, the Knife Thrower also needs some time to get set up for an attack. Batman's approach should be from above or below. The better, he definitely do some damage.

BATMAN HELPERS

BAT TEST TUBE

When activated, these vials will unleash a powerful explosion that wipes out all enemies on the screen. Press the R or L Button and the X Button to activate and use the chemical.

SMALL HEART

Small Hearts are hidden away in containers like trash cans and rings are put in place right. Nabbing a Small Heart will partially replenish Batman's energy.

BONUS 500

By getting the bat with the white bat symbol, Batman will earn 500 bonus points. Batman will also find them in containers. He'll run across many while driving the Batmobile. Yes.

BIG HEART

A rare find, The Big Heart will fully replenish Batman's energy gauge. Like any other item—don't over pass up an opportunity to get one. They don't come along often enough.

BONUS 1000

Something of a rarity in Gotham City, the 1000 point bonus item looks the same as its 500 point counterpart, but instead of white it's red.

1 WINDOW SLAM

There are certain areas in Gotham Plaza where Batman is able to flip the clowns against the buildings. To accomplish this move, grab a clown by the neck (any old clown will do), press Up on the Control Pad and press the Punch button. Double your punting pleasure by throwing a clown into a fellow clown or into a window—or both!

BOSS: STUNGUN CLOWN

Oh, not Salina Kyle! Max Shreck's secretary tried to fire the scene of the ambush at Gotham Plaza, but first found herself trapped at the end of an alleyway and is being held hostage by a deranged Stungun Clown. On top of all of that, she's fast her glasses in order to rescue her. Batman will have to jump into still dark under the Stungun Clown as he fights past while jolting her continuously with Solarangs.

Batman has to use his Spear Gun to get through some tricky areas. When there is fire on the floor, the Spear Gun can be shot out by pressing the R button. The Spear will stick into the ceiling or wall if possible. Press the R button again to retract the cable and pull Batman along with it. Batman can use the Spear Gun repeatedly while in the air.

BOSS: TATOOED STRONGMAN

Talk about strong! This huge character was once a professional truck act, but has now joined the Red Triangle Circus Gang as one of their bosses. One punch from this wracking machine will end Gotham's reality. Use the Cape Sweep to wear down the Strongman. Doing so will reduce Batman's energy level, but it's very difficult to get near the Strongman at first. After you've worn him down a bit, use some Flying Jump Kicks to take him out of commission.

NESTER'S ADVENTURES

M/IN, MY NEXUS-C OVERHEATED ON DRENA AGAINST FOUR RAIJINS. I HAD TO REPLACE THE THERMAL COUPLING WITH MY SOCKS.

YEAH, THE OLD THERMAL COUPLING SOCK TRICK.

WHEN MY MECH OVERHEATED ON ZHROA, I MOVED IT INTO THE WATER AND BLASTED THE BUNNY FROM THERE TO STAY COOL.

GOOD THINKING.

HA, THAT'S NOTHING?

MY NEXUS OVERHEATED JUST THIS MORNING. NO POWER, NO WEAPONS, NO MOBILITY. NO ICE IN THE FRIDGE.

ALL I HAD WAS A CONTRACT FOR 120,000 C-BILLS, AN OLD NP, AND MY HYPER-SUPERIOR BRAIN. THINGS WERE LOOKING PRETTY DIM.

SO WHAT DID YOU DO?

NOPE. I BOUGHT ENOUGH SUN SCREEN TO COVER HALF ONLY 120,000 C-BILLS!

SOUNDS LIKE YOU STILL GOT BURNED!

LOOKS LIKE YOU GOT CREAMED, TOO!

I WAS ON THE LAVA PLANET OF CAWDOO. IT'S SO HOT THERE THAT EVEN THE ICE CREAM BILLS, MECHS WERE CLOSING IN. AND THAT'S WHEN I GOT INSPIRED.

DID YOU VENT THE TURBINES WITH NUCLEAR COOLANT?

I'LL BET YOU SHUNTED YOUR PRIMARY COILS TO AUXILIARY.

NINTENDO POWER AWARDS '92 THE NESTERS

The ballots have been cast and the champions have been crowned. They were chosen by YOU, the faithful readers of Nintendo Power. Now it's time to crack open the envelopes and announce the winners. For 1992, certain games ruled supreme for each system. Street Fighter II: The World Warrior thrashed the competition and dominated in every category it competed in. The same can be said for Super Mario Land 2-6 Golden Coins in the Game Boy category. Mega Man X cleaned up in the NES ranks. Will Mega Man X prolong the blue bomber's winning ways next year?

RESULTS AWARDED BY THE ACCOUNTING
FIRM OF MARIO & MARIO

Great character animation, superior backgrounds and maps, and a cool soundtrack are the elements that landed the winners in each system category in victory. All but enjoyed a landslide victory.

For Best Hero

They are the doers of good deeds. The saviors of justice. The colorful, jaded stalwarts of video game systems everywhere. There are many heroes, but these are the chosen few who are the best of the best.

1st Link

Fresh from his defeat of Agahnim, and Ganex, Link proved to be the ultimate video game hero of 1992. Congratulations young man!

2nd Mega Man

A steady performer over the past five years, the Blue-Bladed Man bomber bagged a solid second place finish. Rock on, Rock Man!

3rd Guile

Our Volume 36 cover boy Guile barely squeaked out the third place finish over his Street Fighter II rival, Dhalsim. Sauvage!

For Best (Worst?) Villain

Always an eagerly-anticipated category with the Nintendo Power editors, the last billion fighters go to the most despicable, heinous, dastard, drag out, last ya up, 'ole the baddest in the business.

1st M. Bison

Capcom's ultimate Master of Disaster villain continues to be the Best Villain category, as well as in Street Fighter II. An easy victory!

2nd Agahnim

Agahnim appears to have made a lasting impression on the minds of Zelda fans. After all, Link had to defeat the menace twice!

3rd Dr. Wily

It was sick and sick for a while, but the Doc finally got pinned. Wario is taking the third spot-based spot in this coveted category.

For Most Innovative

What does it take to be innovative? Being different is part of the formula, but it's not everything. An innovative video game must push the gaming "envelope" and most also provide great gaming appeal.

1st Mario Paint

It's not necessarily a "game," but Mario Paint is the first program to use the Super NES Mouse accessory. Creativity is the key!

2nd Super Mario Kart

A unique playing perspective and truly superb programming are what gives this exciting racing game its innovative qualities.

3rd Out of This World

Very cool graphics are employed in this spectacle from the folks at lamprey. Apparently, many players felt that they were quite innovative.

For Best Super NES Sports Game

Fast action and precise play control are two of the most important qualities a Sports game can have. The winners have that... and a whole lot more! These great sports are represented by the winners!

1st NCAA Basketball

The players crushed the boards and won the game that features the college hoop circuit as the best Sports game of '92!

2nd J. Madden Football

Big John's second Electronic Arts driven battle proved to be much bigger than the first and managed to snag second place here.

3rd NHLPA Hockey '93

Electronic Arts shoots... and scores again! Their icy hot hockey title skated into a third place finish with the greatest of ease.

For Best Overall Super NES

1st Street Fighter II: The World Warrior

In our "The Year in Review" article in Volume 44, we dubbed this game to be the top Super NES title of 1992. While no better about it, this game rules! It has every quality a great game should have.

2nd The Legend of Zelda

A Link to the Past

Link's biggest adventure rated high on everyone's list, but failed to beat off Street Fighter II's crushing blow.

3rd Super Mario Kart

Here's a game that everyone can enjoy! Its third place finish tells us that many of you enjoy dropping banana peels.

For Best Overall Game Boy

1st Super Mario Land 2 6 Golden Coins

Mario's second Game Boy adventure is a huge success. Game Boy's first 4 mag. game totally destroyed the competition. The other games couldn't touch it.

2nd Mega Man II

Mega Man grabbed the second place finish with only a slight margin over Kirby.

3rd Kirby's Dream Land

Kirby gave Mega Man a run for his money. Third place is nothing to sneeze at.

For Best Overall NES

1st Mega Man IV

The NES is where Mega Man really shines. His fourth (but not last!) attack on Dr. Wily proved to be a huge hit with thousands of voters in 1992. We have to wonder if Mega Man V will rule in 1993.

2nd Dragon Warrior IV

When an RPG shows up in the Best Overall category, you know it's a good one. Even a RPG is fantastic and fantastic game players of all ages. The series is continuing, too!

3rd TMNT III: The Manhattan Project

A solid third place finisher, the Turtles are still popular with the pizza-popping set. What will the future hold for the fabulous fourturtles? Only time and Kameari will tell.

Replicas of myself for the winners! Ah, stardom. You know, I think I'm starting to enjoy this job. Thanks for voting!

Easy Money

The only way to advance levels in RPM Racing is by paying for the advancement. Earning the money can be tricky when you are also trying to modify your vehicle. Agent #585 has discovered a way to start the game with 45 million dollars, making level advancements easy. To enter the code, first choose an empty tile and press the B Button to go to the Shop Screen. Choose any of the three cars and press the B Button again. Move the red selection box to the bottom center square, then enter the following code on Controller 1: B, Left, B, Left, B, Right, B, Right, B, B, B, Left, B, B, B, Right, B, Right, B, B. If you enter the code correctly, the red selection box should be one square to the right of the bottom center, and you will have 45 million dollars to spend as you like.

Select an empty tile and press the B Button to enter the Shop Screen.

Pick any vehicle you like, then press the B Button a second time.

Place the red selection box on the bottom center square before you enter the code.

Press B, Left, B, Left, B, Right, B, Right, B, B, B, Left, B, B, B, Right, B, Right, B, B.

FROM AGENT #355

Secret Twin Blasters

Some of the handiest Power-Ups you can find are the Twin Blasters. When you pick a set of these up, you'll get two shots instead of one, giving you twice the blasting power. The Twin Blasters are not easy to find because they are hidden in areas where you may not normally fly your Arwing. Here are a couple of the Twin Blasters that can be found early in the game. Get them for an extra blast of power.

Stage 1 - All 3 Levels

At the beginning of the game you may have noticed several archways along the ground. If you successfully fly through all of the archways, the Twin Blasters will appear inside the largest archway. If you get the Twin Blasters Power-Up, you will have it until you lose your Arwing.

Fly through all of the archways in Stage 1 and the Twin Blasters will appear.

Fly through the largest gateway to get the Power-Up. Double firing blasters can't be beat!

Stage 2 - Level 1

When you enter the Asteroid Belt there is another set of Twin Blasters that you can find. Before you reach the gray Supply Rings halfway through the stage, look for three gold asteroids that are in a tight triangle formation. Fly your Arwing through the center of the triangle and the Twin Blasters will appear on the other side. If you still have the Twin Blasters from the first stage, you will receive the photon Twin Blasters, a truly formidable weapon.

Look for the life-high of gold asteroid halfway through the Asteroid Belt on Level 1.

Fly through the middle of the asteroid belt and the Twin Blasters will appear on the other side.

The double firing ability of the Twin Blasters is great!

Not getting both Power-Ups is never better. Click on the Power-Up!

After you destroy the asteroid bar, a laughing asteroid will appear in front of you.

Shoot the asteroid to reveal the entrance to the Black Hole.

This space graveyard is full of floating enemy ships and Power-Ups.

Fly through the Supply Rings to warp to Stage 4 on Levels 1, 2, or 3.

Secret Warp

When Star Fox hit the stores, our agents were all over it. Agent #355 has found the exact location of the entrance to the awesome Black Hole. The Black Hole works as a warp to three other areas of the game, so it is well worth finding. The entrance can only be found in Stage 2 of Level 1, the Asteroid Belt. Before you reach the midpoint Supply Rings, you will see three asteroid bars. Each bar is made up of four gray asteroids with a gold asteroid in the center. To find the warp, you must first destroy all three asteroid bars. When you destroy them, wait until you are as close as possible, then shoot the center asteroid. If you are close enough to the asteroids when you destroy them, a gray laughing asteroid will appear in front of you. Shoot the asteroid and it will reveal the entrance to the Awesome Black Hole.

The inside of the Black Hole is a space graveyard, full of enemy ships and Power-Ups. There are three exits to the Black Hole that look like gray midpoint Supply Rings. The first exit will take you to Stage 4 - Level 2, the second exit will take you to Stage 4 - Level 3, and the third exit will take you to Stage 4 - Level 1.

Find the entrance to the Black Hole in Stage 2 - Level 1. The Asteroid Belt.

Shoot the center of all three asteroid bars when you are as close to them as possible.

THE LEGEND OF ZELDA[®] LINK'S AWAKENING™

© 1993 Nintendo

ADVENTURE NEVER SLEEPS!

This summer, Nintendo's greatest hero will return for a new adventure and his first quest on Game Boy. The fear-megabit, battery-backed Link's Awakening promises to be the most complex Game Boy Pak in history. At the writing of this preview, many elements of the game were still in development and they may vary slightly from the finished Game Pak. But everything included in this preview came straight from the EAD design group at Nintendo.

▶ ONCE UPON A DREAM...

A great storm sweeps down upon Link's ship during the young hero's return voyage from a journey of self-discovery! The ship is lost, but somehow Link survives. Unconscious, he washes up on a tropical shore where he is discovered by Marin, who nurses him back to health. Like a place out of dreams, the island has at its center a mountain, upon which rests a giant egg. One day, Link meets a wise owl who tells him the story of the Wind Fish—the magical being who sleeps in the egg. Only the Wind Fish has the power to return Link to his own land, but it can be awakened only by collecting the eight Instruments of the Sirens, which are now scattered and guarded by Nightmares. Link sets out at once, hunting down the Nightmares in their perilous caves. It is here that he learns the awful truth, for the island of Koholint and everyone on it exists only in the dream of the Wind Fish. What then will happen if Link awakens the sleeping giant?

LINK

After overthrowing Ganon in The Legend of Zelda: A Link To The Past, Link was the greatest hero of Hyrule. Still, he was young and he knew that he had much to learn if he was to keep the kingdom safe. So he set out on a training mission across the sea, but little did he suspect the adventure that awaited him.

THE OWL

A wise and ancient bird followed Link about the island of Koholint, telling tales of the Wind Fish, the Nightmares, and the music of the Sirens. But what is the owl's purpose?

THE EGG

It is said that the island is but a dream of the magical Wind Fish who sleeps in the egg. The Song of Awakening is Link's only hope of escape, but it is also his greatest fear.

MARIN

Marin discovered Link and saved him, but she does not wish to stay on Koholint. She longs for the outer world and she knows of a song that may wake the Wind Fish.

TARN

Tarn is Marin's father, a kind man who loves mushrooms. Although not a wizard, Tarn bumblingly transforms himself during one of his mushroom hunts.

▶ BEYOND HYRULE

Link's Awakening delivers big adventure on the small screen. In fact, it is twice the size of any previous Game Boy title. Sophisticated graphics are reminiscent of A Link To The Past, but many enemies and the music originated with the first Legend Of Zelda. There are enough dungeons and overworld areas to keep you busy for weeks.

◆ LINK IN ACTION

Link brings even more moves with him than he had in A Link To The Past. The two biggest innovations are the abilities to jump and move his shield. Link must now position his shield to block attacks, and he can push enemies around. He can also jump and attack at the same time.

JUMPING

Link can leap forward with weapons drawn to attack.

SHIELD

In past games, Link's shield moved automatically if he fired an arrow, but now he must move the shield as his own to ward off sword blows or other attacks.

GAMES WITHIN THE GAME

Link's Awakening is filled with mysteries, puzzles and even little bonus games within the game. In one, Link tries his hand at fishing, while in another he fishes for treasure using a crane to pick up items.

Link goes fishing for items on this side view bonus game.

The crane game looks simple but takes skill and patience.

◆ ITEMS

Many of the items in Link's Awakening, like the Hookshot and Magic Powder, will be familiar to veterans of A Link To The Past. But you must also master a new set of items, including a magical Acorn, a Wand and Magical Keys. Link can use any two items at once.

MENU ITEMS

Every item has its own special purpose, so one of the most important parts of the game is making sure that you collect them all.

SWORD

FEATHER

MAGIC POWDER

MAGIC MUSHROOM

YOUR CHOICE

Unlike past games, you can choose any two items that you want to control using the A or B buttons. Even more important, you can use the items simultaneously.

YOSHI DOLL

FINS

LINK'S JOURNEY

Link has set himself the task of increasing his knowledge and skill, but to accomplish that he has had to leave Hyrule. On the island of Koholint, he will find much to remind him of home, and yet much is new. The island can be viewed using maps like the one shown at right and by exploring every corner inside dungeons, buildings and the Overworld.

ISLANDERS

Link must deal with many people and creatures on his quest to escape from the dream of the Wind Fish. There is a grandfather with great knowledge who communicates with Link via phone, a grandmother, identical quadruplets and a lady who has lost her dog to Moblins.

The grandfather knows much about the island and he is happy to share it with Link.

By using the Magic Machine, he will create his Magic Powder.

Link rides a raft on the river and over a waterfall.

The fairy who lives in springs will replace Link's health.

Link's quest begins on this sandy beach where he is discovered by Marin.

DUNGEONS OF DANGER

The eight instruments of the Sirens have been taken by eight Nightmares and hidden in their maze-like caverns. The rooms of the caverns are filled with traps and enemies that Link must overcome, and he must defeat the Nightmare at the end. Some of the Nightmares look oddly familiar, as if configured up by Link's memory of A Link To The Past.

Each of the eight dungeons is filled with traps, enemies and puzzles.

Some of the Nightmares seem to have been designed up from Link's past adventures.

SIREN'S SONG

The song that will wake the Wind Fish can be played only with the eight instruments that have been stolen by the Nightmares. Link must defeat the Nightmares to get the instruments.

JUST THE BEGINNING

This is but a taste of Link's Awakening. His latest adventure really begins this July when the game will be released. Look then to Nintendo Power for the full review with maps, strategies and hints!

ZEN

INTERGALACTIC NINJA™

FILTH-FIGHTERS UNITE!

Fresh from his NES debut, Zen finds that the scum he had to deal with previously has returned... to Game Boy! Unwary players who slip this Kanami cartridge into their portable game unit will instantly be sucked into the slime and will have to fight their way out!

PUT CONTAMINOUS IN DETOX!

The NES and Game Boy versions of Zen are based on the same story, but the games are not the same. The Game Boy version doesn't have the diagonally-scrolling stages that the NES version had. Due to space limitations, we aren't showing complete maps. The areas can be completed in any order, but you'll have to slog through them all to get to the final stage and to Lord Contaminous!

■ PHOTON

Holding the B Button and hitting the energy gauge will allow Zen to shoot a powerful charge from his weapon.

■ SLIDE

There are many areas that are too low for Zen to walk through. Slide by pressing Down and the A Button.

■ KICK

By pressing the A Button, Zen will jump. He will kick his leg while in the air if you press the B Button.

A SUPERHERO'S JOB IS NEVER DONE! I GUESS I'LL HAVE TO SAVE THE WORLD AGAIN.

OIL AREA

Out of the four initial areas, the Oil Area just may be the easiest. Even though you are free to choose any of the areas, we suggest beginning your clean-up crusade here. While moving along, hold down the B Button to charge up a Photon Burst. They can really wallop some enemies. We've mapped out the vertical section of the stage so you can see all of the obstacles that you'll face on your way down.

A Photon Burst flies from the Photon Stick and is about to annihilate a robotic enemy. Stopping short of the gap is difficult because the oil causes you to slide.

A properly timed slide is essential here or you risk going up in the black goo. Wait until the oil barrel is on its way up before you hit the deck and slide over to it.

ZEN INTERGALACTIC NINJA

MY ACID RAIN WILL BEAT DOWN ON ZEN'S DEFENSES!

THE SHAFT

DOWN THE SHAFT

On your way down the vertical section of the Oil Area, Zen will encounter several obstacles. The round copper gears are probably the most hazardous. Avoid their shots and then quickly move in to destroy them.

OIL SLICK

Run under Oil Slick when he is pulled up and bouncing around. When he takes his human-like form, get in real close, crouch down and roll him with a Photon Burst. Keep swinging the Photon Stick until he starts bouncing around again. If you're close enough, Oil Slick will bounce right over the top of you after your attack.

HERE COMES YOUR OIL BATH, ZEN!!

ON TO OIL SUCK!

DAM AREA

Sulfura is in the process of poisoning Earth's water supply to support Lord Contamutious' evil ways. The water behind the Dam was an excellent spot to start. Zen will have to battle his way up and through the Dam to reach the sulfuric sorceress and put a stop to the acid rain.

The normal flow of water in the Dam can swiftly wash Zen down into one of the gaps. Test the currents before getting near an opening.

DISAPPEARING PLATFORMS

There are two things to watch out for when scaling the Dam and jumping on the disappearing platforms. First, deal with the snipe guns with a Photon Burst. The other obstacles that Zen will encounter are streams of water that rush down the Dam.

UP THE DAM

SULFURA

This wicked creature has several methods of attack, but if Zen keeps his distance, he should come out on top. The best thing to do is to find a solid perch and wait there while you fire off Photon Bursts at Sulfura as she tries to jump out of the way when she senses her web of acid will wash out for the wind and raindrops. They burn!

TO SULFURA

SMOG AREA

Cough! Cough! Smogger is really stinking the place up! He's invaded and taken over some kind of industrial establishment and is churning out tons of noxious haze. As if that weren't bad enough, the by-product of Smogger's caustic commodity is... more smoke!

If you see lightning, wait under one of the ledges because a torrent of acid rain will be coming your way!

Don't get hit by the smoke coming out of the stacks and don't let the fans blow you back into one of the gaps.

TO SMOGGER

AN UPLIFTING RIDE

Zen will have to deal with enemies on his way up the smokestack, but the most difficult part is avoiding the spiked ceiling.

SMOGER

Besides launching the hazardous haze, Smogger's Mists of Smoke are the only threat that is posed to Zen when this war. A good piece of advice is to stand back away from Smogger and fly off as many Photon Bursts as you can. Zen should be able to smoke this smogger without ever having to attack!

DUST AREA

Nobody seems to be worried about the problem of garbage. When you throw something away, what does "away" mean? It has to go somewhere! It's a serious problem. However, the Garbagegeman loves it! He can't get enough! Zen is going to do his best to put a stop to the pile-up by trashing the rotten Garbagegeman.

A giant claw tries to drop loads of garbage on Zen. The stacking blocks make it difficult to avoid.

GARBALANCHE!

This is the most difficult section of the Dust Area. A garbage landslide will break away when Zen walks over it and it will follow him down the garbage chute. Pogo Power Up boxes you come across on the way down because you won't have time to get those.

TO GARBAGEMAN

GARBAGEMAN

The Garbagegeman has built himself a house of junk. To reach him, Zen should stand on the left side of the screen and charge up a Photon Burst. Press the Burst at the Garbagegeman as he looks down the pile of junk and then attack him some more with the Photon Burst. Next, move to the first trap in order to avoid the Garbagegeman's fist as it punches up through the pile.

ANYBODY GOT A GAS MASK?!

CLEAN UP IN THE BONUS STAGES

After completing a stage, Zen will have an opportunity to do some more cleaning up. This time, it's for bonus points! There aren't any slimy bosses to contend with here.

Save the seals! When he's not saving the planet, Zen often takes to the ocean to go windsurfing. Jump over the rocks and pick up as many seals as you can.

Puffs of smoke rise from the three pipes. Zen should be able with his Photon Stick to get rid of them. He'll be able to see them as the pipes before they appear.

The slot here is to knock the cans that fall from the chutes into the bin. Only hit the cans. The other stuff that falls from the chutes should be left alone.

FINAL AREA

When, and only when, the first four areas have been completed, Zen will set off on his hunt for Lord Contaminous. The evil-doer has kidnapped Jeremy the Starchilde and is willing to ransom him for the Geocrystal. It's time to rescue Jeremy!

THE FIRE CAVE

CHECK YOUR HEAD

When Zen is jumping down the long vertical shaft, every huge stalactite will break away and some crashing down the shaft as well. If at all possible it's best to stay to the extreme right as left is the thickest one of the stalactites is about to fall. It's also a good idea to pick up the Power Crystal as become increasingly available.

SKULL CAVES

Indestructible skulls will enter the cave on a regular basis from dark holes in the cave wall. You'll quickly see their pattern. Don't try to hit them with the Photon Stick, just jump over them. Power Up with any bones you find because the deal with Lord Contaminous is coming up!

TRIALS BY FIRE

Vertical beams of flames will emanate from small holes in the floor of the cave. Check the map for their locations. The beams only last for about three seconds. When you see one, pause, take care of any approaching enemies, and then move on.

LORD CONTAMINOUS

Here he is, the Master of Disaster, Lord Contaminous! You may think that you have to attack Contaminous directly. Not so. The only way to shoot is let the sphere that Jeremy is trapped in. Contaminous will attack with the methods and powers of each of the bosses that Zen has previously faced. Use the left and right platforms as shields and jumping points.

RING RAGE

CHAMPIONS ARE CROWNED AND HEROES RISE FROM THE MASSES IN THIS FOUR-CORNERED BATTLEFIELD!

TO THE RING!

The matches have been set! Choose your favorite fighter and take your place in the ring. If you survive each battle, the prized Taito Wrestling Federation (TWF) belt will be yours, compliments of Taito! Ring Rage has three modes: Tournament Mode, 1-Player vs. Computer and a great 2-Player Mode. You'll need to use the Game Link cable to challenge a fellow Ring Rager, but the 2-Player Mode is by far the most fun.

TWF FIGHT SITES

Five cities have been selected to host the TWF events. Normal boxing/pro wrestling rings will be encountered in Calgary, Los Angeles and Miami, but in Chicago and New York, the fighters will run up against metallic surroundings. However, running up against them is not what you want to do. Concentrate on learning your moves.

MEET THE RING RAGERS

In Ring Rage's Tournament Mode, you can select any one of the five fighters to play as. The computer will then randomly select an opponent from the four remaining fighters. It's winner-take-all. You'll have to battle each of them to earn the coveted TWF Championship. In the Extra Match Mode, you can select both your fighter and the fighter that the computer will control. The difficulty level can be selected and you can choose which city and ring you'll have your match in.

All busy fighters have their own strengths and special moves. Even though there are only five Ring Ragers to choose from, learning each fighter's moves will help you victory.

VS

THIS FIGHT CONSISTS OF THREE MATCHES.

THE GUY THAT WINS THE BEST OF 2.

CLAIMS VICTORY. I

SPIKE

PRO WRESTLER

The largest fighter, 7 feet, 6 inches and 330 lbs., Spike pummels his opponents with his High Kicks, powerful Knee Blows and Knee Drops. Spike loves to climb the turnbuckles, too!

GUNBOAT RODY

PRO WRESTLER

Weighing 230 lbs. and standing 6 feet, 5 inches tall, Rody's favorite move is the Clothesline. He has powerful arms and loves to use his patented elbow attacks on his opponents.

SHADAM

PRO WRESTLER

This brawler is an expert at hand-to-hand combat. His best move is the Super Thrust. It can catch an opponent off guard and quickly send him flying to the mat.

"KO" JOE

KICK BOXER

This boxer-turned-kick boxer from San Francisco enjoys being able to complement his boxing techniques with kick moves but still relies heavily on his Super Upper Cut.

YASHA

KARATE FIGHTER

Rounding out the field, Yasha is the smallest competitor but has some cool moves. In addition to being fast, his Super Kick can quickly destroy a challenger's hopes of victory.

The rest of the crowd will urge you and your chosen Ring Rager on to victory. Your opponents are all worthy, but you'll get what it takes to lay claim to the TWF belt.

Great Greed™

When you woke up this morning, you had no idea what the day had in store for you. While hiking in the forest with your father, a strange being appeared in front of you. As you rushed over to help the injured creature, you were attacked by a second stranger. Suddenly with a flash, you found yourself in a foreign land and in the middle of a conflict between good and evil. Do you have the strength to defeat the evil Bio-Haz and find your way back home, or will you fall victim to his Great Greed?

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

reat Greed, by Namco, brings players something different in a Role Playing Game. This 2-Meg game for the Game Boy has a long and interesting story-line. Based on the rising environmental concerns in the world today, Great Greed allows the player to save an imaginary world from real life problems. Each area reveals a new environmental problem to solve, from stopping a polluting factory from being built to ending the dumping of trash in the city streets. Along the way, the player is faced with other dilemmas that effect the outcome of the game. Some answers can help you on your quest, while others may only make things more difficult. The graphics are detailed and easy to watch, but the character may be a little small for some player's tastes. The play control is smooth and easy to understand. Combat in this game is fought in a unique real-time style. It may take awhile to get used to, but it works very well in speeding up the fighting of an RPG.

A GREENE TALE

You find yourself in the beautiful Greene Kingdom. You have accidentally warped here without a way home.

The land is torn in a great conflict with the evil Bio-Haz, who is trying to corrupt the world and exploit its natural resources. After rescuing the princess from a surprise attack, the King asks you to help them in their cause. With your trusty dagger in hand, you and Princess Candy, set out to stop the evil forces of Bio-Haz. Your quest brings you to many new and strange lands, where the might of your sword and the shrewdness of your mind must save the Kingdom and its people.

The Nation of Sushi

You arrive in the Nation of Sushi during the mayoral campaign. You discover that one of the candidates, Crabby, is a dirty politician with ulterior motives. Here you are faced with your first moral dilemma, do you accept the bribe you are offered and keep quiet? If you do, you will find that cheaters never prosper.

The Nation of Chow Mein

If you decide to look for the missing Dr. Bromide, your search will lead you to the Town of Tuna. You need to change the laws in Tuna before you can enter the shops or the jail. Later, before you can enter the Dragon Jail to save the doctor, you will need to get the Golden Pepper from the town of Kim Chee in the west.

BATTLE ACTION

The unique style of combat in this game can be very effective with a little practice. When you fight an enemy, each button and direction on the Control Pad represents a different combat command. Before you enter the battle it is very important to equip the scrolls that you need. You can prepare four scrolls, one for each direction on the Control Pad. When you press the corresponding direction during combat, you will activate the spell. This method of casting spells, as well as using the other buttons to attack and dodge, makes the RPG combat both fast and entertaining.

HOW DO I PASS THE SKELETON IN LEVEL 3?

Jeff Thompson

The Skeleton in Level 3 doesn't have a damage meter, so you can't wear him down to destroy him. Instead, you'll have to knock him off the edge. Take the offensive—don't let him drive you back. Attack with the sword then quickly move forward. When he falls to the floor below, drop down and drive him over the edge there, too. You can't defeat him, but a bone-crushing boulder on the third level can Be aggressive and persistent with this lack of bones. Drive him back until he falls off the edge.

Keep after him. Follow the Skeleton down to the next level and push him over that edge, too.

When the Skeleton lands this time, he'll find himself between a rock and a hard place.

HOW DO I GET BY THE MIRROR IN LEVEL 5?

After you trigger the opening of the exit, the evil Jaffar places a big mirror in your path. To get to the other side, you have to make a running jump through it. Timing your takeoff is critical. If you jump too early or late, you'll bounce off the mirror. Take off about one and a half steps away.

The large looking glass that appears after you trigger the exit in Level 5 blocks your path.

Start running and make your leap when you're a step and a half away from the mirror.

If you're successful, you'll sail on through the mirror, but your ghost will be turned away.

HOW DO I REACH THE WHITE KEY IN TORI, ROOM 1-A?

John Gower

The White Key in Room 1-A is resting on a block on the far side of the room—on the other side of a sea of spikes. To reach it, you'll have to move a couple of blocks into position on top of the spikes. Start by pushing Block A forward as far as you can without falling onto the spikes. Next, shove Block B over to where Block A had been, then slide it forward as far as possible. You'll move Block A closer to the other side as you move B. Walk over to the edge of Block A and jump over from the right side to get the key.

Blocks A and B are the only two that you can move. Use them to clear a bridge over the spikes.

Stand behind Block A and shove it out onto the spikes; then slide Block B into position behind A.

As you push Block B out it will move Block A closer to the other side. Jump from the far right edge.

HOW DO I REACH THE TOKEN IN DEESO, ROOM 14?

Take out the hovering menace first, then move the block from the upper area into the corner. Jump up from it to hit the block on the platform above. Push it all the way off the platform, then hop down and slide it into the corner. Jump from it onto the gate when it's down, then, when it rises, hop over to the platform to get the Token. Try riding the gate at other places, too.

Slide this block into the corner, then jump from it to knock the upper block off the platform.

Hop from the block to the gate while it's closed, then ride it up to the Token when it opens.

HOW DO I REACH THE UPPER LEDGE IN DEESO, ROOM 01?

In Room 01, you must move quickly to get into position to catch the falling block. Stand part way on, part way off, of the block in the upper left corner. If you stand completely on the corner block, you'll be pulled to the opposite corner. Let the falling block land on your head, then move over and scrape it off against the overhead ledge. It will stay where it falls as long as it's not completely over the corner block. Now you can leap from it up to the ledge. Walk around the ledge and use the single platforms to jump over to the Token. Stay in the right side of the platforms and hop quickly—if you pause too long, they'll pull you off to the left. Be careful on the return trip, too, or you'll be pulled into the spikes.

Step lightly. Stand part way on the corner block and catch the falling block as your head.

Use the ledge above to scrape the block off, making sure that it's only partly over the corner block.

Leap from the block to the ledge above.

HOW CAN I FIND EXTRA WEAPONS?

Ken Barger

Extra weapons come in handy, so build a large, ready arsenal by using this simple strategy. When you come upon a particular weapon or item that you could use more of, pick it up, then move on through two more screens. Return from there to the screen where you originally found the weapon or item. Another of the same object will again be waiting.

When you find a valuable weapon or item, go ahead and pick it up; then move two screens away.

After moving through two screens, return to find that the weapon or item has been replenished.

HOW CAN I MAKE MONEY QUICKLY?

You have to build a big bankroll to buy the weapons and armor in this game. Here is a good get-rich scheme. In Lyracum Castle, go left through the gate and climb the upper left ladder.

Walk over the left Arrow to this chest in the castle Lyracum. It holds a Gem that's worth $5.

Now walk to the left and go down the ladder. Step on the floor plate in the upper left then go down the ladder on the right. Push the barrel up and enter the right portal. Cross over the Left Arrow and open the chest to Walk north over the Up Arrow, step back into the portal and continue down for two floors.

earn a $5 Gem. Walk up over the Up Arrow and re-enter the portal. Go down and left through two screens, then climb back up the ladders to the same chest, which will again hold a Gem. Repeat to mine loads of cash.

Now climb back up to the room with the chest, which holds another $5 Gem. Repeat up to $50 this way.

HOW DO I REACH THE ABYSS?

To reach the Abyss, take the ship from Lord British's Castle on the Northeastern Isle and sail to the Southern Isle. From there, head east to find a second ship, which will appear only after you've found the back door to the Cavern of Pride. Set sail on the second ship to the Southeastern Isle. Once there, you must use the Magic Rope to work your way to the volcano in the island's northeastern corner. Walk into the fiery volcano to enter the Abyss. There you'll battle enemies such as Rats and Reapers, Wisps and Wizards. With luck—and perseverance—you'll also uncover the Magic Armor and the Rune of Humility.

Board the ship at the shore of the Northeastern Isle and sail first to the Southern Isle.

Board back and enter the Cavern of Pride. Find the back door to make a second ship appear.

Walk into the volcano in the island's northeast region to find the entrance to the Abyss.

MEGA MAN V

HOW DO I GET PAST THE CRYSTAL GUNNERS?

Kwong Shok

You're in for an icy reception when you enter the Crystal Man Stage, which might well be the most difficult of the first eight stages. You must pass through a gauntlet of Crystal Gunners before you reach Crystal Man's lair. The gunners glow blue and white as they form massive crystals at the ends of their weapons. When they pull their arms in, they're about to fire the crystals. Don't be in their line of fire when they do—the icy crystals cause critical damage. The only time that the gunners are vulnerable is just after they fire, so power up your Mega Buster and blast away as they release the crystals.

Regular bullets don't have much effect on the Crystal Gunners; so use the Mega Buster.

Even the Mega Buster fails to damage the gunners when they're forming their crystals.

Power up the Mega Buster and wait for the gunners to fire off a crystal; then attack.

HOW DO I BEAT THE PINK ROBOT?

At the end of Part 3 of the ProtoMan Stage, you'll meet one of Dr. Wily's most sinister creations, the Pink Robot. He looks small in comparison to the red robot you met earlier, but he's much meaner. He has a small cannon for a right arm and shoots three rings of Freeze Ray from his chest. When he's hit by the ray, Mega Man becomes temporarily paralyzed. Your best weapons are the Super Arrow and the Mega Buster. Start firing arrows as soon as you see him and dodge the freeze ray. Keep running from side to side, firing continuously. When you run out of arrows, blast away with the Mega Buster.

The Pink Robot has a cannon instead of a right arm. He can fire while Mega Man is paralyzed.

Keep moving. Try to avoid the freeze ray so you keep a stream of Super Arrows heading for the robot.

It will take 11 or 12 Super Arrow hits and four or five Mega Buster blasts to neutralize the robot.

S U P E R MARIO BROS.

THE MOVIE

Next month, Mario and Luigi will make their way to the big screen in a full-length, live-action movie starring Bob Hoskins and John Leguizamo as the famous video Bros. and Dennis Hopper as a brooding Koopa. Long-time Mario Bros. fans will see their video heroes in an all-new setting, embarking on an all-new adventure. And it's one that promises to be a departure for the duo—in more ways than one.

The Super Mario Bros. movie, to be released by the Hollywood Pictures division of Disney studios and described as a "comedy sci-fi adventure," takes place before the pair become world famous video game heroes. As a result, you won't see Mario and Luigi wearing their trademark overalls and you won't see a helpless princess pleading for help. The script plots the Bros. down in modern-day Brooklyn, where they run the family plumbing business. Their last name? Mario. That's right—Mario Mario and Luigi Mario. And they aren't "super" yet—they look like any other plumbers you might call in an emergency.

BEHIND THE SCENES

In this real life adventure, Mario has a ditzy girlfriend, Daniella (Dana Kaminski), and Luigi's love interest is Daisy (Samantha Mathis), an archaeologist. But, lest you think you're in for a tame tale, Daisy turns out to be a prehistoric princess—and Koopa, of course, kidnaps her

Things definitely take a turn for the weird when the pair of plumbers follows her through a magic portal into a parallel New York City, Dinohattan. And it's anything but tame. In

After they follow Daisy through the mysterious portal, Mario and Luigi find themselves in Dinohattan, where Koopa grows so everything.

"IF IT DON'T BLEED, IT AIN'T LUNCH"

the decaying domain of Dinohattan, a strange fungus grows on just about everything. Times Square becomes Koopa Square, a frenzied strip with neon gone ballistic where you can buy fresh, hot Poitoads on the street, shop at Bullet Bill's Weapons, buy supplies for the "Do-it-yourself Butcher" from the Hammer Bros, or treat yourself to a very rare donut at Drappy's, where they say, "If it don't bleed, it ain't lunch."

DINOHATTAN

Dinohattan's inhabitants are dino descendants in varying stages of evolution. They're ruled by Koopa, who holds regular elections and is certain to win every time because he controls a de-evolution device, called the Devo Chamber, which he uses to evolve or de-evolve his subjects. The less evolved they are, the easier they are to control, so trouble-makers like the street protester played by Mojo Nixon are de-evolved. Koopa finds, though, after several boggled kidnap attempts, that Iggy and Spike are just too stupid in their de-evolved state to be of any use to him, so he pops them in the Devo Chamber and lets them evolve in the hopes that they can capture Daisy.

"KOOA THE ENVIRONMEN- TALIST: 'DON'T WORRY— WE'LL GET MORE'"

As Koopa's captive, Daisy (Samantha Mathis) befriends a fellow prisoner, Yoda. This doesn't look like the Goshute you know, but you've gotta love Yoda!

BEHIND THE SCENES

Considering that one of Mario's first roles was in Mario's Cement Factory (for Table Top and Game & Watch), the film producers found a perfect site for the shoot: the Ideal Cement Company, near Wilmington, North Carolina. Elaborate sets for the DinoBattler scenes were built in the abandoned factory's huge, empty warehouses, and other sites in the compound were used to shoot tunnel scenes and car crashes. Hoskins, who starred in Who Framed Roger Rabbit and Hook, said playing Mario was "a lark." He was first introduced to Mario by his two young sons, who are video aces. When we asked him if he played, Hoskins said that he'd tried Game Boy but was all thumbs (gamers might consider that advantageous, but Hoskins obviously means that he wasn't very good). It looks like he's been practicing. Leguizamo, 28, is a younger Luigi than you might expect, but remember that this is Luigi before all of his video game heroics—and before he grows a moustache. While filming the movie, Leguizamo bought a Siberian Husky puppy that he named, appropriately, we think, "Luigi."

Bob Hoskins, left, and John Leguizamo try their hand at video-linking on the set. Leguizamo became an avid Nintendo player during the filming.

When they arrive in Brooklyn, Mario and Luigi are quick to find us Koopa's hot list.

Koopa looks mostly human, but he changes during the course of the movie to reflect his reptilian heritage. Make-up artists shaved Dennis Hopper's eyebrows, gave him a very pale complexion, and tinted his eyes with red. Special visual effects, like the one that makes his eyes change from human to reptile, reveal his true nature. And speaking of visual effects, between 60 and 100 were created for the movie. State-of-the-art digital compositing techniques were used to make visual effects like the portal through which the present-day New Yorkers enter DinoBattler. Super Mario Bros., the movie, has a look and feel all its own. This is no video game. Koopa is more sinister than ever. Luigi worries about his future, and Mario is a regular joe plumber—at least in the beginning. How do two plumbers from Brooklyn save a princess in a parallel universe? And how do their movie adventures lead them to starring roles in video games? Find out next month when the movie premieres.

AMAZING ANIMATRONICS

The visual effects promise to be stunning, but another scene-stealer is likely to be Yoshi, who is brought to life by animatronics. Patrick Tatopoulos designed the baby T-Rex, Mark Matire sculpted the latex body, and David Nelson headed the team that created the animatronics. None of them were familiar with the Yoshi of Nintendo-game fame, so he looks nothing like you might expect. Instead, producers Roland Joffe and Jake Ebert wanted Yoshi to fit into the human cast that surrounds him. He's a realistic-looking, 4-foot-tall dino, but he's oozing with personality, thanks to the many expressions and movements he can make. Seventy cables feed into Yoshi's body, and it takes nine cable-puppeteering people to operate the fully-functional model.

It takes quite a crew to operate the fully functional Yoshi. The baby T-Rex was created by David Nelson (second from left) and Mark Matire (standing at front).

There are 24 movements in his head alone—his eyelids open and close, his brows pucker, his lips curl back from his teeth. And, with 12 tongues, he's ready for any occasion. Yoshi isn't the only movie creature that will surprise Super Mario Bros. fans. The Goombas that serve as guards for Koopa look nothing like their videogame counterparts. These 8-foot-tall lizard-men were created by Allan Apone Allan Apone rods the Goomba's teeth on one of the Goomba heads. When finished, the Goombas can bark. Heavy wires connect and tell black units.

and John Fifer of Makeup & Effects Laboratories, Inc. They molded foam latex over fiberglass shells to make the eerily real-looking lizard skin. Large head movements are made by the people who wear the Goomba heads, but skin movement and facial expressions are created by Radio Control operators. Although there are several different Goombas, the scene-stealer turns out to be Hark, who in the end shows that he has a heart.

John Fifer also operates the invisible Hark. Between scenes, he takes a Game Boy break—and you can bet that he's not stopping Goombas!

Underneath the molded latex head skin is the shell that forms the Goomba head.

KIRBY'S ADVENTURE™

Wouldn't you know it? Dream Land is in peril again! King Dedede's atrocious armies of heinous henchmen have surfaced on the NES.

GREAT EXHALATIONS!

Inhaling and exhaling. It's all about breathing. You can breathe new life into your NES by playing Kirby's Adventure. While not overly difficult, Nintendo's newest NES game offers a good challenge for the novice player and has plentiful amounts of play value considering there are seven stages. There are plentiful levels within each stage as well. Most of the areas aren't that large, but it's the sheer number of them that helps to mix up the action. A final eight stage pits Kirby against King Dedede and... well, we wouldn't want to give it all away, would we? Unlike Kirby's Dream Land for Game Boy, Kirby's Adventure offers players an opportunity to use many different Special Powers. These Powers are acquired by inhaling enemies and chowing down on them. Not all enemies will offer up their Powers to Kirby when he defeats them, but over 25 of them will.

Approach enemies quickly from any direction to catch them off guard. Here, Kirby's Power of suction to inhale them whole. Gulpi!

Press down on the Goomba! Puts to much an enemy. Most enemies when grabbed will yield their special Powers or weapons to Kirby.

By swallowing the Knight, Kirby now has the Power of the Sword. The S. Broom will cause Kirby to spin and swing the mighty Sword.

If Kirby takes a bump from an enemy, his Special Power will fly away in the form of a Star. But he can inhale the Star to get it back.

ENEMY FORCES

Kirby can easily inhale most of the smaller enemies in the game. After Kirby has gulped an enemy, you can press Down on the Control Pad to steal and use the Power of the enemy. Kirby can then use the newly acquired Power or you can press the Select Button to get rid of it and go for another!

SWORD

Kirby can strike a mighty blow with the Power of the Sword. Just swallow an enemy who carries a Sword, and then steal his Power.

NEEDLE

Like a mutant porcupine, Needles will shoot up out of Kirby's body and will definitely put a quick stop to approaching baddees.

OTHER POWERS

Soar at various enemies with the Parasol and use it to glide down slowly.

Kirby can get the Cutter from this enemy and use the blade to slice others.

Don't get too close! Avoid the Bomb or while it before it explodes.

Inhaling this sleepy guy and pressing Down causes Kirby to do the same.

Cool blue enemies will usually yield some sort of freezing power to Kirby.

Follow the bounding bell... and eat it! This orange sphere gives up a Laser.

Sometimes enemies don't have Special Powers, but can still be used as weapons.

MIKE

It's a known fact that Kirby can't carry a tune. After acquiring the Power of the Mike, hissing will destroy many enemies.

UFO

One of the cooler Powers, the UFO allows Kirby to change into a spaceship and float around while shooting powerful laser beams.

BONUS GAMES

The Bonus Game rooms appears several times throughout the game on the main map screen as Kirby completes various stages. Enter the doors to play the games and earn Bonus Points and essential 1-Ups. Unfortunately, Kirby can't re-enter a Bonus Game room because the doorway will be boarded up when he exits. He'll just have to press on and wait for other Bonus Games to come along. The easiest 1-Ups are earned in these rooms, but playing the games well requires lightning fast fingers and accuracy.

QUICK DRAW

It's a showdown! Press the A Button as soon as you see Fire! come up and hope that you are faster than your opponent.

PW! Kirby was faster to the draw than his opponent and scores another hit. Collect up to five hits in order to earn maximum 1-Ups.

THE CRANE

Pick up the Kirby dolls with the crane and drop them in the container. The small doll gets you a 1-Up and the large doll earns a 2-Up!

It looks as if the crane has been positioned over the large Kirby doll. A large doll in the container is worth a 2-Up!

EGG EATIN'

King Dedede will toss eggs and bombs at Kirby. Press the A Button to open Kirby's mouth and catch the eggs, but don't eat the bombs.

The eggs are on the way, but Kirby should have his mouth closed when a bomb arrives. The Bonus Game ends if he eats a bomb.

LEVEL 1-VEGETABLE VALLEY

Flown in by a Warp Star, Kirby begins his adventure in the lush environs of the Vegetable Valley. When Kirby begins any level, he'll be given only one stage to enter. That stage has to be completed before the next stage will appear. Kirby can re-enter a stage once he has completed it to search for missed items and hidden areas.

WISPY WOODS

If Kirby has a weapon, just back and slash away at the tree's trunk. If not, inhale the apples that Wispy Woods drops and eat them back at him.

LEVEL 2-ICE CREAM ISLAND

Kirby will have to do some light swimming in the early stages of Level 2. When he's underwater, Kirby can hose enemies with a stream of water and destroy them with ease.

In the single room area with a 1-Up sitting on the upper ledge, there is an enemy with a Laser. Inside the enemy and take over the Power of the Laser. Shoot the Laser at one of the angled blocks on either side of the floor. The Laser will reflect upward and will destroy the ledge, causing the 1-Up to fall. Get it!

STAGE

ILLUSTRATOR

Illustrator's works of art fly off the canvas at Kirby. Inhale them and spit them back at the artistic boss. Some of them are much faster than others, so watch your timing!

LEVEL 3-BUTTER BUILDING

The variety in maps gets interesting as Kirby sets off through the Butter Building.

1

If Kirby doesn't have an appropriate weapon at his disposal, use the sliding technique to break through the blocks that restrict his forward progress.

2

An interesting "circular" scrolling section reminiscent of the rotating towers in Super Ghouls 'n' Ghosts and a couple of fights with new bosses are the highlights of Stage 2 in Level 3.

3

Stage 3 can be finished rather quickly if you choose the correct doors for Kirby to enter and exit. However, it may be to your benefit to enter every possible door. Various enemies and Power-Up items can be found in different areas. There's a 1-Up to be found in one of the rooms, as well!

STAGE

STAGE
5

6

Upon entering the door to Stage 4, Kirby will grab a Warp Star that will take him to the Butter Building's tower. Move back and forth in the tower's air shaft to collect Power-Ups and a 1-Up. Stages 4 and 5 are short, but Stage 6 has more action for Kirby. A 1-Up can be found by breaking away a group of four Blocks and going through a puzzling room. You can also make the Egg Timer game appear on the map.

MR. BRIGHT & MR. SHINE

Bright and Shine going up on poor Kirby and attack him. Jump over them when they blaze across the screen. Inhale the stars that Mr. Shine rains down on Kirby and don't get caught under Mr. Bright.

After each stage is completed, Kirby will have yet another chance to earn bonus Points and a 1-Up. Just enter the Assembly with the stars stored in

To get the next height on Kirby's jump press the A Button when the platform has reached its lowest point. It's difficult to accomplish this every time.

YES! With a superhuman effort, Kirby has made it to the top platform and has scored a 1-Up. Pay close, for the 1-Up doesn't come easily in this Bonus Game.

Uh-oh. Someone forgot to push the buttons. Kirby won't receive any Bonus Points and he surely won't receive a 1-Up if the A Button doesn't get pressed.

LEVEL 4-GRAPE GARDEN

At the beginning of the second area in Stage 1, Kirby should nab the UFO that flies up to him. It's a great weapon to have. Kirby can fly around quickly and shoot laser beams at unwary enemies. There's a hidden doorway in the grid of Blocks!

STAGE 1

STAGE 2

It's very easy for Kirby to take a few hits in this area because there are plenty of spikes that line the passages.

STAGE 3

The second area of Stage 3 has one of the coolest looking maps in the game! Kirby will have to hop to and from giant airships (propellers, if you will) with whirling propeller blades. Don't worry about getting hit by the numerous propellers; they're harmless. It's a very good thing because Kirby will be blown around by the rapidly shifting air currents.

4

Stage 4 takes Kirby into the internal workings of one of the airships. He will still be affected by the air currents. It's a good idea to carry a long range weapon through this stage.

5

KRACKO

First of all, Kirby has to fly up through many levels of clouds to reach Kracko's lair. Move from side to side as Kracko gives chase. Secondly, Kirby should avoid Kracko's lightning attack by flying up and over the angry beast. When Kracko spits out a little creature, inhale it and then spit it back at its maker. Just repeat the process to bust the big balloon's bubble.

ON TO DEDEDE!

Levels 5, 6 and 7 still await our puffy little hero. King Dedede has laid many traps along the way. The difficulty level steadily increases through the rest of the game, but for advanced players, the challenge is not one that can't be overcome. Again, Kirby's Adventure is geared toward beginning players. They are the ones who will get the most enjoyment out of this really fun action game.

THE INCREDIBLE

CRASH DUMMIES™

Spin and Slick are cruisin' in a new four-level, eight-stage adventure for the NES from LJN. This time, the Crash Dummy duo takes a break from the job to find buddies Darryl, Bumper and Spare Tire before Junkman turns them into scrap metal. It features both one- and two-player alternating modes, and although there is nothing new about the way it plays, the game has a fun theme.

When Darryl, Bumper and Spare Tire disappear, Slick and Spin know that trouble's brewing—and that Junkman is behind the disappearances. He has a horrible habit of dismembering Crash Dummies and using their parts to create Junkbots that he programs to obey only him. Slick and Spin have to find out where Junkman is holding their friends before he can recycle them into Junkbots. Their search starts in the Crash Test Center and takes them all the way to the Junkyard. Pull yourselves together, Slick and Spin, and be sure to buckle up before you start your search.

STAGE 1-1 CRASH TEST CENTER

THE INCREDIBLE
CRASH DUMMIES

Junkman has posted several of his Junkbots in the Crash Test Center, and that's where Slick starts looking for his friends. The center has lots of barricades to jump over and caution cones to pick up. Slick can either avoid the 'bots or stun them for a short time by spraying them with Exhaust.

CHECK THE OIL

Although Slick has an unlimited supply of Exhaust to use on the Junkbots, he has limited range with the spray. Pick up the Oil Cans you come across to increase the spray's range.

DON'T LOSE YOUR HEAD

When you pick up a Rocket, Slick really flies. If he runs into a barrier at that speed, he'll lose his head. You have to find a spare to see where you're going.

If you pick up a spare head when you don't need one, it will be added to your life meter.

Headless Slick is hard to control—he does just the opposite of what you want him to.

Get a running start from this point.

Slick reminder: you can jump up to the Oil Can.

COLLECT CONES

Pick up as many red and yellow caution cones as you can. When you collect 50, you earn an extra life. What a slick trick!

STAGE 1-2 THE SEWER

This time it's Spin's turn to jump into the action—and jump he does, right into a manhole that leads to the Sewer. It's dark, it's dank and it's dripping with toxic ooze, but rumor has it that one of the Junkbots is holding Bumper hostage somewhere down there.

UNLEASH BUMPER

Bumper, the Crash Dummy Dog, is being held in a kennel under the watchful eye of one of Junkman's Junkbots. It's up to Spin to find the key and free the dog.

P-U!
This job really stinks!

THE SEWER BEAST

The Sewer Beast, a product of Junkman's warped mind, guards the key to Bumper's kennel. Jump up to get the Oil Can in the upper right, then jump the big tires that the beast throws and aim for his head and chest.

The Sewer Beast's eyes flash when he's about to throw a tire. Jump and fire.

BAIL OUT BUMPER

After you make a scrap heap out of the Sewer Beast, take the key and return to the lowest level. Select the key and open the lock to free poor Bumper.

SPARE PARTS

When you lose your head, it's nice to have a spare in reserve. You can also pick up extra Arms that are powerful "Spin" protection.

THE INCREDIBLE
CRASH DUMMIES

Selecting the spare Arm activates a spin menu that helps out incoming enemies.

GRAB THE STEERING WHEEL

When Spin grabs the Steering Wheel, he'll start to flash, indicating that he's invincible. He can barrel right through enemies, wiping them out for good. It works for only a brief period, but it's effective.

Take hold of the wheel for a wild ride.

OLYMPIA

STAGE 2-1 THE BIG TOP

In Level 2, Spin and Slick run off to join the circus. It's every Crash kid's dream! Spin volunteers for the Big Top antics such as high-wire walking and trampoline bouncing. Watch out for the Acrobots that Junkman fires from his cannons—they can ground a dummy but good.

END

STAGE 2-2 THE FUN HOUSE

It's Slick's turn to clown around in the Fun House. He says that he loves Fun Houses, but this one is operated by the Junkman. It's packed with punches.

Don't get your crotch punched by this big boxing glove. If you get too close you'll go down for the count.

Stay a safe distance away as you jump over the flying objects.

Don't lose your sense of direction when you trap into the moving sidewalks.

This is no beach party! Those silly clown trap beach balls that are nothing to laugh at. Duck BOMBS AWAY!

Don't clown around. The parachute bombs may be cute, but they're no laughing matter. If you're anywhere near them when they explode, you'll lose your head—and your control of the situation, as well.

THE INCREDIBLE
CRASH DUMMIES

WHAT'S IN STORE FOR SPIN AND SLICK?

Spin and Slick have had their hands full, all right, but two of their friends are still missing. Where will they look next? The word on the street is that they might be hidden somewhere down on the Docks. Crash on, Spin and Slick.

STAGE 3-1 THE WAREHOUSE

Pick up replacement body parts as you search the Warehouse.

Junkbots patrol amid the trucks and containers in the yard.

STAGE 3-2 AT THE PIER

Darryl is being dragged away.

Something fishy is going on.

Alley crash site. Board the boat at the end of the pier.

After you save Darryl, move on to the Junkyard.

STAGE 4-1 WRECKING YARD

Hurry! Hustle through here.

Don't wait around for enemies.

STAGE 4-2 JUNKMAN'S LAIR

Where is he hiding?

Beware of peaky flies.

The bird was a decoy, but wait until you see Junkman's Lair.

You'll have to find the Junkman in order to save Spin Time.

T S U P E RTM TURRICAN

RAGE AGAINST THE MACHINE

The planet Landoria has been taken over by the armies of the MACHINE. The enslaved Landorins have sent out a distress signal. Turrican has answered the call!

STAGE 1-1 CAVE AREA

Turrican is greeted with the barren surface of Landoria when he begins his mission. The goal is not marked, so just proceed to the right as far as possible.

BLAST THE BARRIERS

To enter this cavernous area and pick up many Power-Up items, Turrican simply has to fire his weapon at the walls. They will eventually crumble away.

WEAPONS AND ITEMS

Turrican can fall back on superior firepower. It's up to you to provide the superior intelligence. The more items Turrican picks up, the more powerful his weaponry.

SUPER TURRICAN

The Superweapon is the strongest weapon Turrican has. Press the Spin Button to activate it. Turrican has limited use of this weapon, though.

The Multiple Shot speeds out as it leaves Turrican's gun. It's not very powerful at first, but picking up Power-Up Items increases its strength dramatically.

The Laser weapon has a high penetration rate. This is an excellent weapon to have if you are using a Controller with a turbo function like the NES Advantage.

The Spinning weapon will rocket several times off of various surfaces. The best time to have this weapon is when Turrican finds himself surrounded by obstacles.

BEAM POWER

SUPER WEAPON

LIFE FORCE

As a general rule, pick up every Power-Up Item you find. The only time you shouldn't pick one up is when you don't want to change weapons.

METEOR SHOWER

Proceed quickly to the right through this rocky area because a forceful torrent of meteors will fall out of the sky. Turrican's only defense will be to sprint for shelter.

LONG JUMP TO A 1-UP

Shoot this Item Container to uncover it and then use it as a step to get out to the 1-Up on the far left ledge.

CAVE ENTRANCE

Turrican can go through this cave and jump to another cave on the other side of the waterfall to find a Power-Up Container.

WATER ABYSS

There are two ways for Turrican to lose a life. One is to run out of energy. The other is to fall into an abyss, like this waterfall.

TO 1-2

STAGE 1-2

The second section of Stage 1 is much like the first. Turrican will have to pass through many more areas that have spikes and spires. Remember to hold Down and press the Start Button to roll up into the Gyroscope when traversing the spikes. The Gyroscope will never take any damage when hit by an enemy.

STAGE 1-3

The terrain in the third section of Stage 1 is becoming more developed. Turrican encounters more and more cannon installations as well as some new UFO-type enemies. Using the Gyroscope is also a necessary step for completing this section. Just make sure you're not standing on spikes when you come out of the Gyroscope.

Remember, Turrican won't be able to get through this area if he is not in the Gyroscope's invisible form. When scaling cliffs, carefully timing cannons will pay off in the long run.

A huge iron spiked ball at the boss near the end of Stage 1-3. Avoid it when it crashes into the floor, touch it and pump up to shoot at it repeatedly.

STAGE 2-1 SEWER AREA

Turrican plunges fearlessly down a garbage chute and into the depths of the Landonin sewer system. He doesn't want to go into the sewer, but he knows it's an area on Landonin that he must rid of the invading scum.

DIAMOND CONTAINER

Upon falling down the garbage chute and entering the sewer system, Turrican should proceed to the left and up into another shaft area. There, he can uncover an Item Container that holds a bounty of valuable Diamonds.

START

TO A

SHAFTED!

When falling down this shaft, stay in the middle to avoid the guns. Better yet, roll up into the Gyroscope before falling.

BARRIERS

There are six indestructible, vertically-moving barriers in this particular section. Turrican can make it through these barriers without taking a hit only if he tries to pass two at a time. However, the smart player will always take the easiest way and will opt to roll up into the Gyroscope and cut right through them.

SUPER TURRICAN

UNDERTOW

The undertow of the sewer system's drainfield won't have much effect on Turrican, but it could possibly drag him into an area where he doesn't want to go. Fight the current!

PAK O' PIRANHAS

Turrican will encounter swarms of hungry piranhas if he goes underwater. Shoot them just like any other enemy in the game.

STAGE 2-2

After falling down what appears to be a waterfall abyss in the first section of the stage, Turrican finds himself getting into deeper sewer surroundings. Overall, the whole game is fairly difficult, but this is where the difficulty level really starts to increase. The main things to watch out for in this section are the small missile launchers that are attached to the ceiling. Don't get caught off guard. Fire constantly while running and jumping to cover as much area as possible.

Good and areas like this will usually hold helpful Item Containers. Most will be hidden.

STAGE 2-3

The third part of Stage 2 isn't very lengthy, but there are some major areas of importance to mention. First, there is a long vertical shaft that constantly has garbage raining down through it. Turrican has to jump through the garbage in order to continue. He'll probably take a hit, but it's the only way through. If you use the Gyroscope, he'll likely end up falling into the abyss. Second, if the Superweapon is Powered-Up and you are patient, the boss should be no trouble at all for Turrican.

Turrican can jump up, start firing and go one or one with the boss, but shooting and firing in the gap while using the long Beam is a much better strategy.

TO 2-2

STAGE 3-1 VENTILATION SHAFT

Besides his vertical leap, a series of structures and lifts are all that Turrican has to help him up the long ventilation shaft. If Turrican falls off of a lift for some reason, it will always reappear in the same spot.

TO A

SAFE AREA

Once Turrican has cleared out all of the enemies and destroyed all of the laser turrets in a certain area, he should be safe. The large mechanical structures in the center of the shaft are safe to stand on.

CROSSFIRE

While riding up on the lifts, Turrican will encounter several diagonally-moving blue enemies. There are also laser turrets that shoot straight down. It's easy to get caught in the crossfire between the two when jumping from lift to lift.

TO 3-2

UPLIFTING

In the upper region of the ventilation shaft, Turrican will have to make more jumps in order to reach the top. Remember, if Turrican happens to fall off of one of the lifts, all is not lost. The lift will always reappear, no matter how many times it takes.

Jump to the lift on the left and ride a big ride all the way to the top of the ventilation shaft.

FLYING V

A formation of seven enemies will swoop down at Turrican in this area. Try to position him between two of them so he doesn't get hit. The enemies won't fire any shots so don't feel like you have to hurry.

A

STAGE 3-2

Several new types of enemies and traps will be encountered in the second area of Stage 3. Watch out for the spiders—they're fast! Make good use of the Superweapon to take out the laser installments that line the ceiling in certain areas.

The Item Containers are still found here, but Turrican may have to search a bit harder for them.

STAGE 3-3

More of the same awaits Turrican in the third area of Stage 3. It just never ends! Well, it does end, but only if Turrican plays his cards right and uses his weapons to their full capabilities. When falling down the many shafts here, remember to roll up into the Gyroscopic because there are usually plenty of pesky enemies waiting down below for our hero.

Shoot at the mechanical boss from the sides and then momentarily roll up into the Gyroscopic when it unleashes its lightning attack.

STAGE 4 AND BEYOND

There are a total of five stages in the game. Turrican still has some major challenges ahead of him if he is set on rescuing the people of Landorn. Using your mapping skills will help you through the last two stages.

Don't be afraid of these demon heads. They're just decoys that were designed to draw Turrican off.

These bird-like enemies can create quite a swarm. A weapon that cuts a wide swath is great against them.

Danger on all sides will confound Turrican as each of the remaining areas in Stages 4 and 5.

Memory Size 8 Megabits
Game Type One-player street fighting action and driving

This long-awaited action game is worth the wait. The Dark Knight of Gotham takes on the Penguin and Cat Woman with the help of some bat toys and the Batmobile. Konami used elements from the movie to great effect, including excellently reproduced still-frame cinema scenes and the digitized musical score. What's really impressive, though, is the great action. Batman has plenty of moves and superior animation brings it home, as you'll see in this month's review.

■ The graphics are top notch and the digitized musical score from the movie really adds to the feeling of being in Gotham. Fighting control and animation are also excellent. The cinema scenes were digitized from the movie, as well.

■ More variety in the play beyond street fighting and driving would have made this a better and deeper game.

THE LOST VIKINGS

Company Interplay
Suggested Retail Price $49.95
Release Date May 1993
Memory Size 8 Megabits

Game Type Side-scrolling action with three characters who work as a team

One of the most unique game ideas to come along in a long time is The Lost Vikings. Eek the Swift, Baeling the Fierce and Olaf the Stout must work together to overcome countless obstacles. Their goal is simply to get back home. The problem is that aliens have scooped them out of their own time and plopped them down in a far more ancient period. What's a Viking to do? Go for it! There are six stages including prehistoric caves, ancient Egypt, a machine world, a spaceship, and more. Read this month's review for some of the answers on how to get these Norse nomads back home.

■ Unique game play sets this Pek apart, but the graphics and animation are wonderful. The text is often hilarious, too. Very inventive stages and enemies keep players working more and looking ahead.

■ The game control of using three characters can be awkward, especially when you're getting used to the game.

SHADOWRUN

Company Data East
Suggested Retail Price $69.95
Release Date May 1993
Memory Size 8 Megabits
Game Type Action adventure based on FASA's futuristic RPG

Enter the dark, future world of magic and high tech known as Shadowrun. An overhead view and sprawling world make for a great game of exploration and danger. You start the game in the morgue on a slab. Why? How? What do you do now? Those questions and more will be answered in this month's Power review.

➤ Fans of Shadowrun have got to cheer for this faithful video version of the FASA RPG. The action and adventure elements of this game take it beyond the realm of standard RPGs. A great story and depth of play.

➤ The graphic characters are small and not very detailed. Scrolling through the key words during conversations becomes repetitious. The game play at the beginning is without clear goals, which can be frustrating.

KENDO RAGE

Company.....Sera
Suggested Retail Price.....$59.95
Release Date.....May 1993
Memory Size.....8 Megabits
Game Type.....Seven stages of comic action for one player

Jo, a valley girl from the U.S., is sent to Japan for summer school only to find herself in the middle of an adventure. It seems her Kendo master (Osaki a.k.a. Bob, who also doubles as a used car salesman) has decided to test her by having her battle evildoers on the way to school. Luckily for Jo, she's a quick study at Kendo, and she's learned to whack bad guys with her bamboo stick and can use Psy power for extra special effects. Big characters and a Japanese-looking cartoon animation style are well suited to the game. The valley speak is like, pretty funny, especially when it appears in a Japanese cartoon. It's nice to see a game that doesn't have the destruction of Earth as its major theme. The real strengths of Kendo Rage, however, are very solid action and play control. The challenge can be adjusted to suit your skill level, so this game is really for everyone.

➤ Good play control in spite of slightly stiff animation. You can attack both straight up and straight down. The cinema scenes and introduction are tongue-in-cheek and funny. Skill level options for Easy, Normal and Hard.

➤ Not as much creativity was used in creating the action stages as the intro. The enemies, except for the bosses, are standard fare, and the stages don't reflect the sense of humor evident at the beginning.

NFL FOOTBALL

Company.....Konami
Suggested Retail Price.....Not Available
Release Date.....May 1993
Memory Size.....8 Megabits
Game Type.....NFL football simulation for one or two players

All 28 teams of the NFL appear in Konami's first major Super NES sports title. The game features a unique Mode 7 rotation feature on kicks and passes, and one of the best digitized voices ever for the announcer. The play by play is limited to non-color descriptions of the action on the gridiron, but it doesn't repeat constantly so it isn't as annoying as it is in so many sports games. Other features include your choice of playing surfaces and whether to have shorter period lengths.

The NFL license doesn't mean NFL players are included, however, which means no roster adjustments or substitutions are possible. Playoffs with selected teams work with a Password, but there is no full season schedule. Unfortunately, you don't get the chance to choose your favorite team to be in the playoffs. All the NFL teams do exhibit the real characteristics of the actual team, which means you have a strong passing attack with Buffalo and a great running game with teams like Kansas City.

The truly radical thing about this game is the use of Mode 7 rotation during passing and kicking plays. Once a pass has been thrown, the view of the field rotates from the side so that you now have the viewpoint of the receiver looking back at the quarterback and the approaching pass. Take a closer look in this month's Sports Scene for the full score on this pigskin Pak.

➤ Excellent play-by-play digitized voice. Good selection of plays.

➤ Awkward use of Mode 7 rotation during kickoffs and pass plays. Incomprehensible scoreboard. Lack of control on pass plays. Extremely awkward control of defense. No option to move defensive players before the snap.

THE BLUES BROTHERS

Company.....Titus
Suggested Retail Price.....$69.99
Release Date.....May 1993
Memory Size.....8 Megabits
Game Type.....Side scrolling action based on the SNL characters

Jake and Elwood have been in hiding for years, but they're back in public view in Titus' second Super NES game, The Blues Brothers. This romp is strictly a platform game, but the further you go, the more hidden items you'll have a chance to find. What really sets this game apart, however, is the two-player simultaneous mode that allows the Blues Brothers to interact on the screen. The big colorful graphics look great, but they won't remind anyone of SNL. Neither will the situations. The Bros. are in a typical comic action game world in which enemies of incredible diversity and weirdness are everywhere and the only goal is to hop and stomp your way to the end of the current stage. For most players, a license as old as the Blues Bros. is meaningless anyway, so what remains is a pretty good platform game with enough challenge to make you sing the blues.

➤ Good graphics and solid action play. Fairly good play control and enough variety and challenge to keep players coming back.

❑ Don't expect to hear the blues in the background. The music tends to be the too-uncy stuff associated with standard action games.

TOM & JERRY

Company.....Hi Tech
Suggested Retail Price.....Between $50-$9
Release Date.....May 1993
Memory Size.....4 Megabits
Game Type.....Comic action for one or two players in alternating play

Tom & Jerry are at the movies. In fact, they've been to a screening of their own debut film, but now it's time to go home and the old cat and mouse games begin. In this side-scrolling action game based on the cartoon duo, Jerry must scurry home while avoiding all sorts of dangers, from roaches to wrecking balls, and, of course, the ever-hungry Tom. In the two-player mode, one player takes the role of Tuffy, Jerry's nephew. There are four areas with multiple stages in each, taking you through the Theater, the Junk Yard, the Toy Store and the House. One unique feature is Jerry's hit meter. Look at his face and you'll see the expression change when he's been hit. If he looks like he's seen a ghost, or a cat, that means he's only got one hit left. As in previous Tom & Jerry games, our mouse hero collects cheese and marbles. The marbles are used to attack enemies. Cheese restores stamina or earns 1-Ups. If all goes well, Jerry will reach his mouse hole in safety.

➤ Good graphics and fairly sharp play control get this game off to a good start.

❑ The game isn't very deep or challenging.

FOOTBALL FURY

Company.....American Sammy
Suggested Retail Price.....$59.95
Release Date.....May 1993
Memory Size.....8 Megabits
Game Type.....Football for one-player or two-player simultaneous play

Although this American Sammy football game doesn't have an NFL license, it includes all 28 NFL cities with fictitious teams. Play choice is similar to the John Madden series of football games in that you choose a formation, then a play. The action is pretty simple, but it's also easy to get the hang of it.

➤ Easy to learn and play.

❑ Fewer offensive and defensive plays than most other Super NES football games. Defensive players near the ball cleave more at unrealistic speeds. Poor manual.

OUTLANDER

Company.....Mindscape
Suggested Retail Price.....$49.95
Release Date.....April 1993
Memory Size.....8 Megabits
Game Type.....Driving action for one player

The Westland is no place for the weak of heart. As you race through the desert on your mission to reach Dr. Beaumont, you'll face bikers, helicopters, trucks and thugs alongside the road. Most of the action takes place in a behind-the-steering-wheel view, but you'll have to get out of the car and scavenge for items and weapons when you reach towns and other areas. A dashboard map can be displayed to show the areas through which you've driven. As you progress, you can pick up superior weapons such as surface-to-air missiles. One look at this hybrid will make most players think of Mad Max, and the feeling of that movie is very much in evidence. If you want a different sort of racing game, take a look at Outlander.

➤ The driving sequences are fairly realistic with good graphics and play control.

❑ The action outside the car doesn't have the quality of animation of the driving sequences. It's hard to tell if you're making progress.

BIZYLAND

Company.....Seto
Suggested Retail Price.....$59.95
Release Date.....April 1993
Memory Size.....4 Megabits
Game Type.....Puzzle action for one or two players

The people of Bizyland have vanished. You might even say that they've been framed. To put them back in the picture, you must use the magic chalk to outline areas within a frame and free the people. When the entire picture within the frame appears, you've completed the area and will move onto the next. The challenge comes from avoiding the various enemies controlled by Queen Wagamama. Fans of Qix, a Nintendo Game Boy title, will find the same style of play in Bizyland.

Beautiful pictures are revealed by clearing a stage.

The challenge is very limited by other action game standards or puzzle game standards. It is really a game for young or inexperienced players.

LETHAL WEAPON

Company: Ocean
Suggested Retail Price: $69.95
Release Date: April 1993
Memory Size: 8 Megabits
Game Type: Side-scrolling action based on the movie

You all know the plot. Two L.A. cops, one nuts, one responsible, are on the loose in the midst of crime and degradation. The first thing you'll notice is that the character of Murtough (Mel Gibson) looks more like a fat, mean elf, and the same is true of Riggs. Big heads, little bodies. The graphics seem like a simplified version of the original Addams Family game, and fail to capture the feeling and excitement of an action film like Lethal Weapon. Too bad. The license seems like a natural for an action Pak. The one thing going for this game is that the actual play control is far better than either the Game Boy or NES versions.

Good sound and fair challenge.

The hit detection seems to allow for your character to take hits while he is unable to inflict damage on enemies. The game never lives up to the excitement of the movie.

KIRBY'S ADVENTURE

Company: Nintendo
Suggested Retail Price: $39.99
Release Date: May 1993
Memory Size: 6 Megabits
Game Type: One-player huff and puff action based on the Game Boy character

Kirby, that inflatable hero of Dream Land, is back in action, this time on the NES. As in his last adventure (or action adventure to be precise), he can inhale his enemies and shoot them back out again. In this adventure he can fly by inhaling and he can even shrink into a tiny ball when needed. He also has to use items, find Power-Ups and hidden areas, bonus stages and much more. This massive 6 megabit game should keep Kirby's fans excited with great exhalations. If you have an inflated opinion of your skills, you won't have to bother reading all the tips in this month's Power review. But if you'd like to expand your horizons, be sure to read about the latest Kirby action.

Great variety of stages, good play control and fun action are the strengths of this game. The background graphics are excellent for the NES.

The theme may be younger than the challenge. The regular sized Kirby still seems small, and the tiny Kirby seems almost microscopic.

PRO SPORT HOCKEY

Company: Jaleco
Suggested Retail Price: Not Available
Release Date: April 1993
Memory Size: 2 Megabits
Game Type: Hockey for one or two players

Although Jaleco didn't get the NHL license for this NES hockey simulation, they did score the NHLPA license, meaning that the players from the NHL are represented in the game along with their playing strengths. The action on the ice is fast, realistic and hard hitting. The refs will call fouls and throw your players in the penalty box unless you choose the No Penalty option. Using the Password feature, one player can advance through the season to the USA championship. There is also a training mode, in which you control either the offensive player or defensive player in a one-on-one shootout. Other features include the ability to change rosters, choose an offensive scheme or zone or man-to-man defense.

This is one of the better sports titles for the NES that has appeared recently. Lots of options, real NHL players, password feature and championship, plus two-player simultaneous play and fairly realistic action all combine to make Pro Sport Hockey a winner.

- ❖ The training mode doesn't help prepare you for action on the ice because it is nearly impossible to score. Character flicker is bad when all the players are in one area of the rink.

HIT THE ICE

Company.....Taito
Suggested Retail Price.....Not Available
Release Date.....May 1993
Memory Size.....2 Megabits
Game Type.....Ice hockey with a special Quest Mode

As a two-player game, Hit The Ice is your standard hockey simulation with two characters per team plus a goalie. In the Quest Mode, players roam about an overworld, collect money and experience points from pick-up matches while searching for the five major rival teams. To reach the championship, of course, you must find and beat the mean opposing teams. Since you don't have full teams on the ice, you aren't going to experience true hockey action. Fighting is one of the main activities, and you won't get penalized for body checks and other illegal moves.

- ❖ The characters are much smaller than in the Super NES version of the game, which results in more realistic hockey action. The Quest Mode is one of the more unique approaches to a sports game.

- ❖ There is no true hockey action with only three players per side. Character flicker can be a problem when all the players are in one area.

SUPER TURRICAN

Company.....Seika
Suggested Retail Price.....$39.95
Release Date.....May 1993
Memory Size.....2 Megabits
Game Type.....Sci-fi adventure

Futuristic adventure comes to the NES with Seika's Super Turrican. The action may be side-scrolling, but each stage has multiple passages and hidden areas to explore. Don't let the "Super" in the title fool you—it stands for super challenging! Luckily, you have plenty of weapons to help you wipe out the alien threat. This issue's in-depth review will help you do just that.

- ❖ A true challenge for Power Players! Option settings include an increased number of Lives and Skill Level. The attack strategies are practically unlimited. You don't have to blast aliens. You can also stomp on them.

- ❖ Some of the Controller functions are too complex for the speed at which you must react.

THE INCREDIBLE CRASH TEST DUMMIES

Company.....Accolam
Suggested Retail Price.....Between $47.95-49.95
Release Date.....April 1993
Memory Size.....3 Megabits
Game Type.....Comic Action

The Incredible Crash Test Dummies may be the official spokes-dummies for safety, but they don't take their own advice in Accolam's new NES title. This side-scrolling action game starts out with Spare Tire and Daryl falling into the clutches of Junkman. Apparently, he wants to use their spare parts to make Junkbots. Your job is to find his secret hideout and rescue your buddies. You can learn more about this game in this month's NES review.

- ❖ Good graphics and play control.

- ❖ The stages aren't as imaginative or funny as those in the Game Boy title, nor do they fit the theme as well.

ZEN: INTERGALACTIC NINJA

Company.....Konami
Suggested Retail Price.....Not Available
Release Date.....May 1993
Memory Size.....1 Megabit
Game Type.....Side-scrolling action for one player

Zen, the hero from beyond the stars, returns to Earth in this Game Boy action romp from Konami. The action scrolls both vertically and horizontally as Zen pursues environmentally corrupt fiends through five stages. Clean up with tips from our Power review.

- ❖ Excellent control and graphics make Zen as playable as the classic Ninja Gaiden series from Tecmo.

- ❖ Not as varied as the NES version of Zen.

GREAT GREED

Company Namco
Suggested Retail Price $37.95
Release Date March 1993
Memory Size 2 Megabits
Game Type RPG with environmental and ethical themes

You're out hiking one day when suddenly you're zapped into an alternate reality—the Kingdom of Grease. Here you'll be attacked by the evil Biohaz. Moral dilemmas must be considered and your choices will come into play later in the game, possibly to haunt you. Fighting control during battles is real-time unlike most RPGs. You'll actually be attacked if you don't move! So, if you've been waiting for a new RPG with a difference, check out this month's Game Boy review.

- You can set up custom Attack controls. You can save at any point. Good scope and depth to the game.
- Some of the clues are not well directed, resulting in needless wandering about the map.

A LOOK INTO THE GAMES OF THE FUTURE

PAK WATCH

FINAL FIGHT II

CAPCOM

The Mad Gear Gang will soon be back to its old tricks when Capcom's Final Fight II appears later this summer. You can bet that the Mayor of Metro City, Mike Haggar, will be back at the thick of the action, too. It seems that his martial arts master, Gen-Ryu-Sai, has been kidnapped! The original Final Fight, which was based on a hit arcade game, featured giant characters and excellent street fighting action in a scrolling mode. That's the same story with Final Fight II, but the graphics are even better and the fighting animation seems closer to Street Fighter II. In an early version that this Pak Watcher played, there was even a cameo appearance by a character from Street Fighter II, although we won't reveal who she is just yet. The action is all that is advertised. Using Haggar, or either of his two comrades, Maki and Carlos, you'll have command of six special moves per player. Haggar's background as a pro wrestler is revealed in his moves, like the Spinning Pile Driver and Body Press.

Maki, the daughter of Gen-Ryu-Sai, has moves used by ninjas, and Carlos prefers attacking with a sword. As in the original game, you won't be limited to the use of your fists. If you come across an item on the ground, say a knife or a length of pipe, you can pick it up and swing it at your foes. There are also Power-Up items. This two-player simultaneous game may not have as much hype as Street Fighter II, but it is bound to be one of the major titles of the year—a must have for street fighting fans.

ALIEN 3

ACCLAIM

Acclaim's latest movie license may prove to be its best, at least as far as the game is concerned. This sci-fi Super NES title was one of the most promising games in early development at last Winter's CES, and since then it has only gotten better. Although the action scrolls horizontally and vertically, Ripley (your character) has freedom of motion within any part of the compound. She has tasks to perform in the different areas of the compound in addition to rescuing the human captives. The adventure element of the game makes it more complex than most side-scrollers, and the play control, even on the early version that your Pak Watcher played, seemed very responsive. The second big movie title due this summer is T2: Judgment Day. Scene by scene, T2 follows the action of Arnold's biggest hit, from blasting the T2000 in the mall to blowing away a small army single-handedly. It looks cool.

ALIEN 3

T2: JUDGMENT DAY

ROCKY RODENT

IREM

Several months ago, Irem couldn't decide what sort of critter they had in their new action game, Rocky Rodent. Sometimes it looked like a cat, sometimes a rat, sometimes something completely different. So they decided to call it a rodent, perod. While Rocky's ancestry may be shaky, his game is solid. He's a cool, side-scrolling rodent who uses his heavily mousved hair to smack enemies. In fact, his horn of hair is so hard, he can use it as a spike to stick in buildings and flip himself to higher levels. The action varies per level, with everything from basic running and jumping to driving. This Pak Watcher had a good time playing an early version, although Rocky seemed to move slower than other famous video game rodents.

OBITUS

BULLET PROOF SOFTWARE

BPS has a reputation for innovative games like Faceball 2000. Now comes a unique RPG called Obitus, which was developed by Pygmasus of Lemmings fame. Obitus combines first person RPG scenes with side-scrolling scenes. In the five castle areas, your character can move into the 3-D view of the room to use items and fight. Outside the castles, the first-person view features good graphics and standard RPG play.

RUN SABER

ATLUS

Aliens have invaded Earth and there's only one chance to stop them—to send out a pair of super cyborgs! Okay, so you've seen more original story lines on the back of your breakfast cereal. In Run Saber, the action is non-stop and totally absorbing due to great moves, great play control and an interesting progression through the game that includes vertical, horizontal and diagonal areas. At one stage, you'll find yourself clinging to the top of a jet aircraft as enemies materialize from the skin of the plane. That kind of creative stage development kept this Pak Watcher coming back for more. The two-player simultaneous option simply doubles the fun.

TRODDLERS

SEIKA

The Troddlers are little people who walk endlessly in one direction, as mindlessly as Lemmings, you might say. Although this game does have some striking resemblances to Lemmings, the actual play is more like Krusty's Fun House. By creating blocks, you can direct the progress of the Troddlers to an Exit Door. The stages, each with its own theme such as the Pyramids of Egypt, become progressively more difficult. One of the challenges is to make use of the limited number of blocks. An excellent Training Mode teaches basic and advanced techniques, many of which you won't get just by playing the Solo Mode. There is also a two-player simultaneous Team Mode and a two-player simultaneous War Mode. The game is also Super NES Mouse compatible. Troddlers can become quite addictive to action puzzle players, or anyone interested in a challenge.

UTOPIA

JALECO

The idea of Utopia is to build an extraterrestrial colony, defend it against aliens and provide for your citizens. The facilities you can build include mining sites, defense installations, factories, and many more. A group of computer advisors is on hand to help, but aliens may invade if you're not strong. This Pak Watcher advises that you read the manual if you hope to get anywhere, because the game play and goals can be ambiguous.

SPEEDY GONZALEZ

SUNSOFT

Ay! Ay! Andale! Andale! The most famous Mexican mouse in history, Speedy Gonzales, is racing toward completion of his first video game. Pak Watch received an early version, only fifty percent complete, but it was enough to make us want more. Speedy lives up to his name, and acting like a Mexican jumping bean is another of this hombre's strengths. The game takes you through five stages of side-scrolling, loop-thelooping, enemy-dodging and trampoline jumping. Our sources at Sunsoft have also revealed that the long-awaited Super NES Superman game is due by the end of the year, and that a big surprise is at store!

STAR TREK: THE NEXT GENERATION

ABSOLUTE

Absolute is going where no one has gone before with its action adventure based on Star Trek. The Next Generation. The unique interface places you in command of the Enterprise as Capt. Picard. Your commands are carried out by four officers on their computer consoles. For instance, Lt. Worf controls defensive and offensive systems during battles according to your commands. The missions are random—a matter of picking up cargo and delivering it—but the real challenge should come from alien threats. Engaging!

BATTLETOADS & DOUBLE DRAGON

KEMCO

This may be one of the best NES games of the year! Battletoads & Double Dragon: The Ultimate Team rocks and rolls anyway you like it. One player, two-player. Toads, Dragons, one Toad and one Dragon, the choice is yours. Better yet, this isn't the same thing you've seen in previous Battletoads or Double Dragon games. Although many of the super moves have been saved from earlier outings, the settings are different and many new enemies appear. Some of the old enemies also return, including the arch-fiends, the Dark Queen and the Shadow Boss. Battletoads in Ragnarok's World is the second Game Boy Battletoads title, also due out this summer.

Oddly enough, this game is virtually identical to the original NES Battletoads, except that it has fewer stages.

PAK WATCH UPDATE

What's happening this summer? How about WWF Royal Rumble from Accolade? This 16-megabit Pak has got some of the clearest digitized graphics, sharpest control, and hottest options of any game this Pak Watcher has ever seen. Last year's WWF Super Wrestlemania was a hit, but this sequel is a clear winner. The four play options include One-on-one, Tag Team, Triple Tag Team, and the awesome Royal Rumble, in which everyone takes a shot at you. Choose from 12 WWF superstars like Randy Savage and Mr. Perfect, then take them through their moves. More than that, you can use illegal moves to get your point across. Strength comes into play when wrestlers are locked in a hold. That's when you have to turbo up your strength meter. The fastest finger wins! This game, due out by the middle of summer, is great for one or two players.

A lot of attention has been given to games with new characters like Bubsy from Accolade and Aero the Acrobat from Sunsoft. Now Tradewest is getting into the act with Plok from British developers, Software Creations. Plok's unique defense in a world filled with random baddies is to fling his arms and legs at them. Excellent graphics and animations from one of the best artistic staffs in the business, plus one of the best musical scores, have been combined with a great action game. Besides throwing himself at the enemy, Plok can change shape and use vehicles such as cars and flying saucers. There's even a world starring Plok's grandfather that plays like an old black and white movie. Tradewest hopes to release the game in the fall.

Another little guy with big expectations is Pac-Man from Namco. The hero of the early video game revolution returns to the Super NES in an action adventure that features Pac-Man and his entire family. Pak Watch sources at Namco released exclusive shots to Nintendo Power of the game in development. They said that Pac-Man 2: The New Adventure will have a unique interface unlike anything seen before. The idea is that you will be playing with Pac-Man, who will be a "living personality." More on this Pak later!

From Plok and Pac-Man we turn to Pink—The Pink Panther, that is. TechMagik, a new licensee for the Super NES, has commissioned developers Manley & Associates to create a game based on the coolest cat in cartoons. Manley provided Pak Watch with a look at the Pink Panther in very early development. Shown here are the sprites that make up the animation sequence of Pink's walk. Inspector Clouseau and the clever sight gags made famous in the cartoons, like the portable hole, will be included.

Some, like Dracula, like it hot, or at least hot blooded. Sony Imagesoft's Bram Stoker's Dracula for the Super NES turns the classic tale of vampirism into a side-scrolling action game. Pak Watch received a version that was two-thirds complete. Our initial impression was that the game looked fine for an action title, but there wasn't enough Dracula.

some screen shots of Mountain Sports for the Super NES. Mountain climbing, kayaking and other outdoors sports have been neglected by video games until now. Another sport seldom seen on the video screen is motorcycle racing. Sometime this fall, however, all that will change. Atlus's GP-1 grand prix motorcycle racing has the look and feel of being on the track, and the two-player, split-screen option is a blast! Your Game Boy sports library may soon grow by two titles with one Game Pak. T*HQ's Sports Illustrated Football/Baseball is on its way. This 4-megabit Pak has both of America's favorite sports. The baseball game looks particularly impressive. T*HQ is also working on a Super NES version of the game in a 16 megabit Pak. ASCII's Spellcraft has been in the works for almost a year, and it won't be in the stores until this Fall. The overhead view RPG has the feel of The Immortal but with better graphics.

SnowArt from Mats puts you in control of an art colony in a suburban backyard. Pak Watch recently looked at an almost completed version of the game. This Super NES Mouse compatible simulation looks better than the PC version due to larger graphics. You can really see your art! It may sound a bit boring, but it's a life and death struggle! Look for it by the end of summer.

Capcom's Gargoyle's Quest began with an action adventure on the Game Boy, moved to the NES, and now is returning to Game Boy with Gargoyle's Quest II. This game is virtually identical to the excellent NES Gargoyle's Quest and includes RPG elements along with Firebrand's action stages.

In life breaking news, Konami has purchased Monsters, an original Super NES game from Lucasarts Games and one of the most unique, wild and funny games this Pak Watcher has seen since Maniac Mansion. Finally, the return of the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles in Konami's Super NES Turtles Tournament Fighter this Fall promises to combine great street fighting action with some of the best licensed characters around. Pak Watch sources at Konami promise a look at the developmental version as soon as possible.
